AUSL REGULAR SEASON 101

RULES OF INTEREST

Run Rule: A regulation run-rule game shall be declared by the umpire if one team is ahead by eight or more runs after five or more equal innings.

- Complete innings must be played unless the home team reaches the eight-run lead while at bat in the last inning.
- Any hit that results in an eight-run lead by the home team (after 4 ½ innings) is considered a game-ending hit.
- Whenever the visiting team reaches the limit in the fifth inning or any inning thereafter, the home team must have its opportunity to bat in the bottom of the inning.

Extra Innings: If the score is tied after at least seven innings have been played, the following tiebreaker will be played to determine the winning team:

- Starting with the top of the eighth inning and in each half inning to follow, the offensive team shall begin its turn at bat with the player scheduled to bat ninth in that half inning being placed on second base.
- Example: If the No. 5 batter in the batting order is the lead-off batter, the No. 4 batter in the batting order will be placed on second base.

In-Game Conferences: Each team will be permitted seven (7) in-game conferences, which includes visits to the pitcher's circle by a coach or player and offensive timeouts. If a game requires extra innings, teams will be given one (1) conference per extra inning.

Coach's Challenges: Each coach is permitted two (2) video review challenges per game, which will be reviewed for a final decision. A challenge must be indicated by one of the two designated team representatives either verbally or visually before the next pitch is thrown, before all members of the infield have clearly vacated their positions and left fair territory, or before the umpires have left the field of play. A challenge is indicated visually by tapping the top of the head with one hand.

Umpires are also allowed to initiate a video review of any call in the reviewable plays list once the game reaches the sixth inning. Furthermore, the crew chief may initiate a review at any point during the game when a play is not properly covered by an umpire (i.e. uncovered or double covered with a different signal from each umpire).

The following plays can be reviewed:

1. Regarding batted balls (any ball higher than the top of the foul pole when it leaves the field cannot have that aspect reviewed):
   a. Deciding if a batted ball called fair is fair or foul
   b. Deciding if a batted ball called foul should be a ground-rule double, home run or hit-by-pitch
   c. Deciding if a batted ball is or is not a home run
2. Regarding pitched balls at the plate:
   a. Deciding if a pitch ruled a dropped third strike was caught before the ball touched the ground
   b. Deciding whether a live or dead ball should be changed to a foul ball
   c. Deciding whether a foul ball should be changed to a foul tip only with no base runners, or if it would result in a third out
   d. Deciding whether a batter is entitled to an award of first base per hit batter (by pitch) - whether the ball hit the batter, whether the ball was entirely in the batter's box, whether the batter made an attempt to get out of the way of the pitch when required, and/or whether the batter intentionally tried to get hit by the pitch
3. Interference including collisions (reviewable if not called on the field)
   a. Batter interference and spectator interference may be reviewed at any time
4. Obstruction
5. Deciding if malicious/flagrant contact occurred
   a. Umpires may initiate this review without requiring a Coach's Challenge at any point in the game to ensure player safety
6. Timing Plays (deciding whether a third out is made before the lead base runner touches home plate)
7. Force/Tag Plays (plays involving all runners acquiring the bases before the defensive player's attempt to put the runner out at any base)
8. Blocked or Dead Ball/Placement of Runners (deciding whether a ball not ruled blocked should be ruled blocked and the proper placement of runners [per rule book] after any blocked or dead ball call
9. Catch or No Catch (in any situation)
10. Runners leaving the base prior to the touch on a fly ball (tagging up), runners missing a base and runners leaving early on a pitch
    a. The crew chief may not initiate a review of runners leaving early on a pitch; this review is only allowed by a coach's challenge
    b. If leaving early is not called on the field and a runner successfully advances a base on the play, this is reviewable with a Coach's Challenge with the following exceptions: Out of the park home run, hit by pitch, ground rule double, foul ball, lead off, or blocked ball base award on a pitch, a walk or catcher obstruction.
11. Base running situations
    a. A baserunner passes a preceding runner before that runner is put out
    b. If a batter-runner, after overrunning first base, makes an attempt toward second base
12. Any of the listed reviewable items if the action on the field results in a dead ball

The following criteria will be used for video review:

1. All equipment should be tested by appropriate personnel before each game.
2. A ruling on the field will only be changed if there is indisputable video evidence to reverse the call. Absent that evidence, the original ruling on the field will stand.
3. A review must be verbally or visually indicated before the next pitch, before the pitcher and all infielders have clearly vacated their normal fielding position and left fair territory, or the umpires leave the field of play.
4. Coaches have 30 seconds to verbally or visually lodge a challenge.
5. The video review may be conducted on-site by the crew chief or by an off-field official at a centralized video review location.
6. If video review is conducted on-site by the crew chief, the video review area shall not require an umpire to walk through spectators or dugouts to view the coverage. At least one umpire must remain on the field.
7. During the review, the defensive team shall maintain their position on the field and may warm up if desired. Offensive base runners, current batter and the on-deck batter also shall remain on the field, but may leave their current position. Other personnel shall remain in the dugout. Any defensive or offensive conferences will be charged as during any other part of the game.
8. Once the review is completed, the crew chief will communicate the ruling to both head coaches and the official scorer using the following criteria. This should also be communicated to the broadcasting booth, if applicable, via the umpire who has a microphone.
   a. Ruling on the field is upheld
   b. Ruling on the field is changed
9. If the reversing of a call results in the need for decisions on the placement of base runners, the crew chief shall use their best judgement and/or the appropriate rule to determine where to place the runners as if the call had been made correctly.
10. The final decision may not be argued by either Coach. A Coach who argues the final decision shall be immediately ejected.

- Hitter of the Year

THE BOOK OF UNLIMITED

The Book of Unlimited was designed, handmade and bound for Athletes Unlimited and serves as a record keeper of its leagues, including the AUSL. The book, which was handmade by Tikhon Verygyn in his studio in Kyiv, Ukraine, weighs nearly 25 pounds, measures approximately 12" by 18" and contains nearly 500 pages. The champion, along with all who competed, are inscribed into the book. In addition, The Book of Unlimited also contains a history of achievements in Athletes Unlimited, including stories, highlights and events.

The book opens during each season's Opening Ceremony and is closed after the champion's name is inscribed into the book during the Closing Ceremony. The tradition started during Athletes Unlimited Pro Softball's inaugural season in 2020.

AUSL

LEADERSHIP

Kim Ng was named as the Athletes Unlimited Softball League's first commissioner on April 16, 2025.

KIM NG

COMMISSIONER

Kim Ng, a trailblazing executive and the first woman to serve as the general manager of a major American men's professional sports team, was named as the first commissioner in the history of the Athletes Unlimited Softball League on April 16, 2025.

Under Ng's leadership, the AUSL has established itself as a growing force in professional women's sports. Following a successful inaugural season in 2025 that included a landmark investment from Major League Baseball, the league expanded to six teams in 2026 and continued to build momentum across the business. The AUSL has recorded 50 sellout crowds through its first two seasons while ESPN viewership increased 152% in 2026. In addition, merchandise sales rose by 110% and the league generated 453 million social media impressions. The 2026 campaign culminated with a historic championship broadcast on ABC that averaged 732,000 viewers, the largest audience ever for a professional softball game.

Ng joined the Athletes Unlimited staff following a four-year tenure as the general manager for the Miami Marlins. In Ng's time with Miami, the Marlins authored the fourth-best winning percentage in franchise history during the 2023 season while garnering the franchise's first full-season postseason berth in 20 years.

In 2021, Ng was recognized as the Best Hire in Sports by Sports Business Journal along with being named Trailblazer of the Year by Baseball America. She was also recognized as a Game Changer by the Asia Society in addition to receiving the Billie Jean King Leadership Award from the Women's Sports Foundation and the Lou Gehrig Sports Award from the ALS Association of Greater New York.

Prior to her time with the Marlins, Ng served as Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations with Major League Baseball for nine years and was the highest-ranking Asian-American female baseball executive. She directed international baseball operations while working with the front offices of the league's 30 clubs in addition to many other baseball leagues and entities.

In addition, she guided a team which set policies for international signing rules, established MLB's first system for registering international players for signing, and managed protocols for signing international players.

Ng also focused efforts on growing the game of baseball while anchoring the league's efforts in improving quality of play, caliber of talent and rate of participation for amateur baseball around the world. She also supervised the league's playing initiatives for girls and women while serving on MLB's Diversity Pipeline Advisory Committee.

Ng started her baseball career with the Chicago White Sox as an intern in 1990 before rising to the position of Assistant Director of Baseball Operations. After serving as the Director of Waivers and Records for the American League in 1997, she joined the New York Yankees as Assistant General Manager from 1998-2001.

When she was hired by the Yankees, Ng was the youngest person in the league to hold that title at 29 years old in addition to being just the second woman to be an Assistant General Manager with an MLB club.

In 2002, Ng joined the Los Angeles Dodgers staff as Vice President and Assistant General Manager, a position she held for nine years. Her primary duties included assisting in player transactions, trades and free agent signings, while also overseeing the team's arbitration efforts. She also oversaw the organization's pro scouting, medical and video departments.

Ng also served as the Dodgers' interim Farm Director in 2004, overseeing all player development.

Ng was part of nine combined postseason appearances during her tenure with the White Sox, Yankees and Dodgers, including six League Championship Series berths. The Yankees won three World Series titles during her four years with the organization.

Ng has received many honors and awards during her historic career. She has appeared on Forbes' Most Influential Minorities in Sports and Most Influential Women in Sports lists along with being recognized on Adweek's Most Powerful Women in Sports group. She was recognized as one of InStyle Magazine's Badass 50 Women in addition to being included on the list of the South Florida Business Journal's Power Leaders.

A graduate of the University of Chicago with a degree in public policy, Ng was a four-year letter winner for the softball team.

SAM FISCHER

DIRECTOR, SOFTBALL OPERATIONS

After making an impact on Athletes Unlimited during her playing career, Sam Fischer has continued to play an important role in the organization's success by serving as the Director of Softball Operations for the Athletes Unlimited Softball League.

The AUSL has established itself as a growing force in professional women's sports during Fischer's first two years. After a successful inaugural season in 2025 that included a landmark investment from Major League Baseball, the AUSL grew to six teams this past summer while continuing to build momentum across the business. The AUSL has recorded 50 sellout crowds over two seasons, while ESPN viewership increased 152% in 2026. Merchandise sales also rose 110%, and the league generated 453 million social media impressions. The 2026 campaign culminated with a historic championship broadcast on ABC that averaged 732,000 viewers, the largest audience ever for a professional softball game.

Fischer, who competed during all eight AU Pro Softball seasons, closed her AU Pro Softball career as one of seven players to appear in 100 or more games between AUX and Championship Season play. She finished with a .333 career batting average, while her 86 combined hits rank eighth on the league's all-time career chart.

In addition, Fischer collected 57 runs batted in during her 106-game career, which are tied for fifth in AU Pro Softball history. The Simi Valley, Calif., product also scored 36 runs in her career while registering 14 home runs, two triples and 10 doubles.

Fischer enjoyed her best year of AU Pro Softball competition in 2022, earning an eighth place showing on the final AUX leaderboard before securing seventh place during the league's Championship Season. She authored a .375 batting average during 12 AUX contests while adding two home runs with a career-high 11 runs batted in before adding three home runs and 10 runs batted in over 15 Championship Season fixtures.

In 2023, Fischer secured a 13th place finish during the AUX competition before posting a 12th place showing on the final Championship Season leaderboard. She ended the AUX season with a .368 batting mark after compiling 14 hits over 10 games, before hitting at a .273 clip in Championship Season play with 12 hits, including two home runs and two doubles.

Fischer spent her final two years serving as the chairperson of Athletes Unlimited Pro Softball's Player Executive Committee, providing leadership over the league's five-person group.

Fischer played in 81 games over two seasons with the Akron Racers of National Pro Fastpitch, belting 19 home runs with 51 runs batted in. She signed with Scrap Yard Fastpitch in 2018 and also played two years in the Japan Diamond League with the Toda Medics.

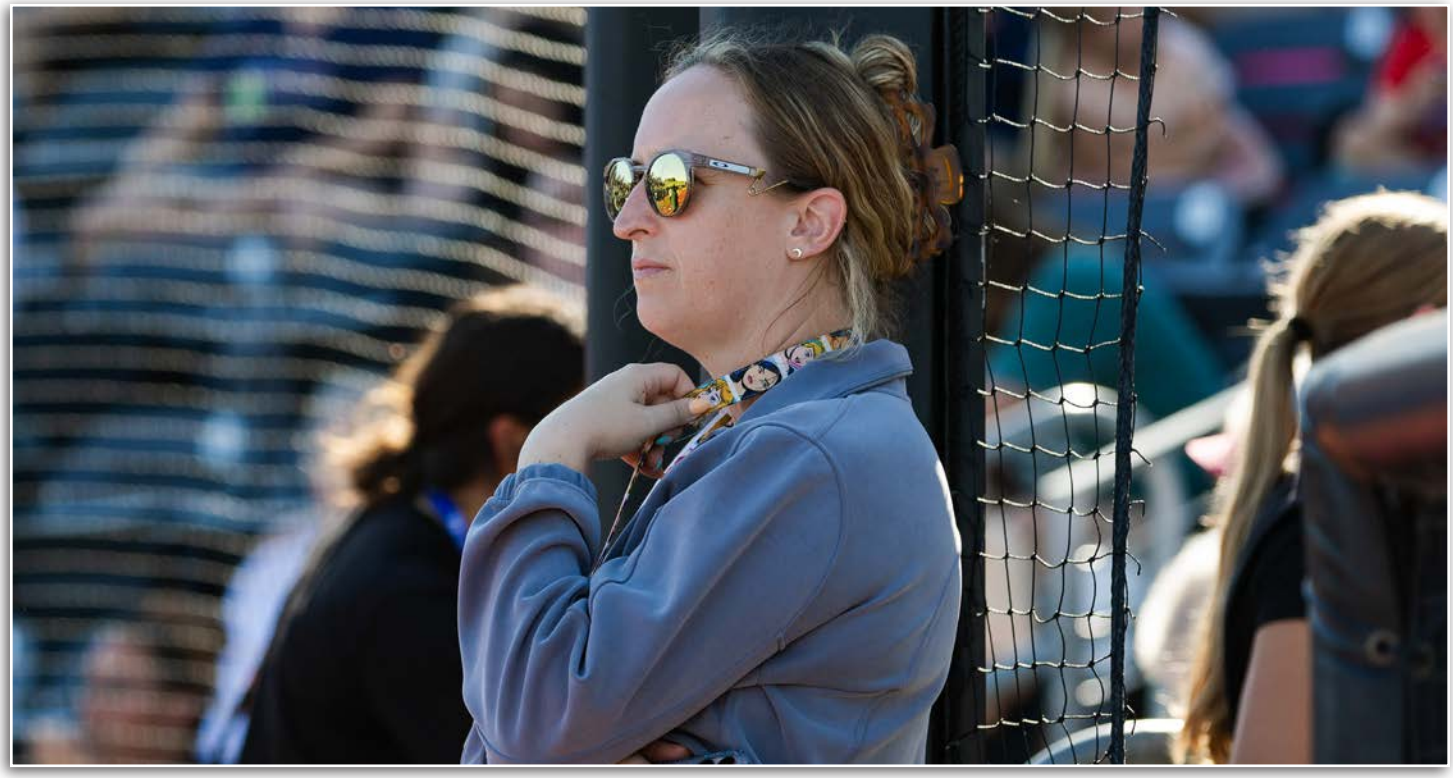

Fischer also enjoyed a lengthy career with Team USA, competing with the squad from 2012-15 along with a stint with the Team USA Women's Elite squad in 2016. She fashioned a .330 batting average with eight home runs and 31 runs batted in during her time with the national team while earning a pair of Gold medals at the World Cup of Softball and Japan Cup in 2015.

Team USA also collected a Gold medal at the 2014 World Cup of Softball with Fischer on its roster. She also earned a pair of Silver medals with Team USA at the 2012 and 2014 ISF World Championships.

A four-year letter winner at Loyola Marymount from 2009-12, Fischer was the first player in program history to earn First-Team All-Pacific Coast Softball Conference recognition four times while claiming a spot on the NFCA All-America Second Team during her senior season after leading NCAA Division I with a .492 batting average.

The two-time PCSC Coastal Division Player of the Year finished her career as the Lions' all-time leader in home runs (65), runs batted in (172), total bases (495), batting average (.387), slugging percentage (.786), on-base percentage (.494), runs scored (194), doubles (52) and walks (127).

Inducted into the Loyola Marymount Sports Hall of Fame in 2019, Fischer also entered the West Coast Conference's Hall of Honor in March 2023 and had her No. 52 jersey retired by Loyola Marymount.

JENNIE FINCH

ADVISOR

Since starting her softball career at the age of five years old, Jennie Finch has enjoyed legendary success at the college, professional and international levels. Now, one of the greatest pitchers of all-time aims to continue that success with the Athletes Unlimited Softball League by serving as a league advisor.

Finch's record-setting career began at the University of Arizona where she was a dominant force in the circle for the Wildcats from 1999-2002. A three-time NFCA First-Team All-America selection, Finch also earned the Honda Award for Softball following her junior and senior seasons in addition to a pair of Pac-10 Conference Pitcher of the Year certificates.

Finch amassed an impressive 119-16 record in the circle during her college career, while her .881 career win percentage ranks fifth in NCAA Division I history. She ranks 10th in program history with a 1.09 career earned run average, while her 1,028 career strikeouts are good for third place on the Wildcats' career chart.

In addition to her many contributions to the Arizona pitching record book, Finch also owns the longest winning streak by a pitcher in NCAA Division I history after claiming 60 consecutive victories from April 29, 2000 to April 6, 2002.

During her junior season, the La Mirada, California, product piloted the Wildcats to the sixth national title in program history. She finished the campaign with a perfect 32-0 record, which stands as the best single-season mark by a pitcher in NCAA Division I history, while recording a 0.54 earned run average with 279 strikeouts over 207.0 innings.

Honored as the Most Outstanding Player at the 2001 NCAA Women's College World Series, Finch guided the Wildcats to a perfect 4-0 record, including back-to-back 1-0 wins over Stanford and UCLA to secure the title.

Finch, who also threw eight no-hitters with 64 shutouts in her college career, was equally as productive as a hitter. She authored a .301 career batting average with 50 home runs and 195 runs batted in while appearing in 270 total games.

Finch's success carried into the professional level where she compiled a 35-8 record with 26 complete games and 15 shutouts during five seasons with the Chicago Bandits of National Pro Fastpitch.

Honored as co-recipient of the 2005 NPF Pitcher of the Year award, Finch posted a perfect 14-0 record with a 0.88 earned run average and 114 strikeouts in her inaugural professional season. She also hit .309 with six home runs and 22 runs batted in.

In her last season with the Bandits, Finch secured All-NPF Team status after registering a 6-4 record and 80 strikeouts across 28 appearances. She also added a .266 batting average at the plate with eight extra-base hits, including six doubles, one triple and one home run.

A member of the Chicago Bandits' 2008 NPF Championship Team, Finch ranks fourth in league with a 1.11 career earned run average, while her 382 career strikeouts are good for 10th place on the all-time ledger. She also holds the league record with a 0.68 WHIP.

Finch also enjoyed a successful career at the international level, earning a pair of Olympic medals with Team USA. She helped the United States win the Gold medal in the 2004 Athens Games, spinning a 2-0 record with 13 strikeouts over 8.0 innings.

In addition, Finch aided Team USA's efforts in winning the Silver medal at the 2008 Olympic Games in Beijing. She contributed 4.0 no-hit innings in an 11-0 victory over Venezuela before adding 5.0 shutout frames in a 7-0 triumph against Chinese Taipei.

Finch, who competed for Team USA in 1998 along with a stint from 2002-10, was honored as the USA Softball Female Athlete of the Year in 2009. She also helped Team USA claim the Gold medal at the 2002, 2006 and 2010 World Championships along with a pair of Gold medals at the Pan American Games in 2003 and 2007. She was enshrined into the National Softball Hall of Fame in 2016.

Finch, who started pitching at age 8, is married to Casey Daigle, a former Major League Baseball pitcher who played for the Arizona Diamondbacks and the Houston Astros. The couple has three children - Ace, Diesel and Paisley.

JESSICA MENDOZA

ADVISOR

Two-time Olympian and four-time NFCA All-America First Team honoree Jessica Mendoza has certainly made her mark as one of the greatest players in softball history. She hopes to make even more history with the Athletes Unlimited Softball League by serving as an advisor.

The only player in Stanford history to earn First-Team All-America status four times, Mendoza also holds the honor of being one of two Cardinal student-athletes to ever secure four All-America citations. She also collected First-Team All-Pac-12 Conference plaudits every year and was honored as the league's Player of the Year in 2000.

Mendoza's name is etched thoroughly throughout the Stanford single-season and career record books. She holds the top spot on the Cardinal's career charts for batting average (.416), hits (327), home runs (50), slugging percentage (.719), runs scored (230) and stolen bases (86).

In addition, Mendoza ranks third in school history with 70 career doubles and 188 career runs batted in, while her 786 at-bats are good for second on the all-time ledger.

Mendoza, the only player in Stanford history to hit over .400 in three seasons during a career, established the program single-season standard during her sophomore year when she fashioned a .475 batting average. She also set a program record by scoring 70 runs during the 2001 season while appearing in a school-record 71 games.

Mendoza also owns the distinction of being one of two players in Stanford history with 90 or more hits in a single season when she tallied 94 hits in her sophomore season.

During her four-year career, the Cardinal posted a 183-79-1 record with four NCAA regional appearances, including the program's first-ever Women's College World Series berth in 2001. Led by Mendoza, Stanford won a school-record 54 games, including victories over LSU and California in the Women's College World Series.

After closing her college career, Mendoza played four seasons in National Pro Fastpitch. She opened her professional career with the Arizona Heat in 2005, fashioning a .491 batting average with 29 hits, including five doubles and eight home runs.

In 2010, Mendoza returned to the professional ranks and spent the next three seasons with the USSSA Pride. She guided the Pride to the 2010 Cowles Cup title after hitting .284 with seven home runs and 28 runs batted in.

Over her four NPF seasons, Mendoza posted a .360 batting average to rank fourth on the league's all-time chart. She also belted 34 home runs with 130 runs batted in, while adding 114 runs scored.

A two-time Olympian, Mendoza helped the United States win the Gold medal at the 2004 Athens Games by hitting .250 (5-for-20) with five runs scored and five runs batted in. She also helped Team USA secure the Silver medal four years later in Beijing.

In addition to her success at the Olympics, Mendoza helped Team USA win the Gold medal at the World Championship in 2002, 2006 and 2010. She hit .313 during the 2002 event with eight runs scored and seven runs batted in before adding five home runs with 16 RBI in 2006.

Mendoza also owns Gold medals from the 2003 and 2007 Pan American Games along with the 2001 U.S. Cup. She was honored as the USA Softball Female Athlete of the Year in 2006 and was inducted into the National Softball Hall of Fame in 2019.

Setting records is not something Mendoza has done just on the softball diamond. In 2015, she became the first woman to serve as an analyst for nationally-televised Major League Baseball games during an edition of Monday Night Baseball on ESPN. She later became the first female analyst for a nationally-televised MLB postseason contest by calling the American League Wild Card game on ESPN.

In October 2020, Mendoza became the first female World Series analyst on any national broadcast when she was a member of ESPN Radio's coverage.

In addition to her Major League Baseball experience, Mendoza has been a member of the broadcast team for ESPN and ABC's coverage of the Little League Baseball World Series since 2016. She has also provided analysis for ESPN's coverage at the NCAA Women's College World Series since 2007.

Mendoza is also currently in her fifth season as a member of the broadcast team for the Los Angeles Dodgers' television coverage.

A native of Camarillo, California, Mendoza earned her bachelor's degree in American studies from Stanford in 2002 before receiving a master's degree in social sciences in education in 2003.

With a 14.34 strikeout-per-seven-inning average, Osterman still holds the NCAA top mark after nearly 20 years. She held opposing hitters to just a .096 clip in her collegiate career.

A four-time Big 12 Conference Pitcher of the Year honoree, Osterman still owns league records in career wins, ERA, strikeouts, no-hitters, perfect games and shutouts. She also claimed the 2006 NCAA Today's Top VIII Award, which was awarded to the top eight senior student-athletes in the country. She is one of just five pitchers in NCAA Division I history to record at least 100 career victories, 1,000 career strikeouts and a career ERA under 1.00.

In addition to her success in the circle, Osterman also excelled academically at Texas and garnered Third-Team CoSIDA Academic All-America® honors as a sophomore in addition to three Academic All-Big 12 Conference Team citations. She will be inducted into the College Sports Communicators Academic All-America® Hall of Fame in June 2025.

After graduating from Texas, Osterman was the No. 1 overall pick in the 2006 National Pro Fastpitch (NPF) league draft by the Connecticut Brakettes, but never played with the team. With Osterman in the dugout, the Bobcats' pitching staff posted a sub-2.00 earned run average three times over six seasons.

Before joining the Texas State staff, Osterman spent three seasons as an assistant coach at St. Edwards University. The Hilltoppers compiled a 98-69 record and an appearance in the NCAA DIvision II Super Regionals. St. Edwards won the Heartland Conference Tournament in 2012, while climbing to a runner-up finish in the league postseason in 2013 and 2014.

Osterman began her coaching career at DePaul from 2008-10, helping the Blue Demons earn three Big East Championships and a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances.

From her days with UCLA and Team USA to her career in National Pro Fastpitch, Natasha Watley could be considered as one of the greatest hitters in the history of softball. She hopes to impart her greatness on the Athletes Unlimited Softball League by serving as an advisor.

One of three players in UCLA history to earn four First-Team NFCA All-America citations, Watley earned the starting assignment in all 251 games of her college career from 2000-03. She earned First-Team All-Pac-10 Conference distinction in all four years and was recognized as the league' Player of the Year following her senior season.

A two-time NCAA Women's College World Series All-Tournament Team selection, Watley led the Bruins to the WCWS during each of her four years. UCLA amassed a 28-6 record in the Women's College World Series and won the 2003 title.

Watley finished her award-winning college career with a .450 average, the second-highest mark in program history. In addition, she holds the UCLA career records for at-bats (878), hits (395), runs scored (252), triples (21) and stolen bases (158).

A native of Irvine, California, Watley ranks second in UCLA history with 252 runs scored. She also contributed 15 home runs, including 10 homers during her senior season, while driving in 135 runs. In addition to her consistency at the plate, Watley was a menace on the basepaths by setting a UCLA single-season standard with 52 stolen bases in 56 tries. She also scored 75 runs over 68 games to set another school record, which stood until this spring.

Watley enjoyed her best season at the plate during her junior season, fashioning a .485 batting average while setting a new UCLA record with 112 hits, including 14 doubles, seven triples and two home runs. Her 112 hits rank seventh on the NCAA's all-time Division I single-season ledger.

Honored as the 2003 Honda Award for Softball winner, she also became the third softball player in UCLA history to win the Honda Broderick Cup as the nation's top overall female collegiate student-athlete.

While her college and professional careers were legendary, Watley's international career provided just as much success. She was a two-time Olympian, guiding the United States to the Gold medal at the 2004 Athens Games in addition to a Silver medal at the 2008 Beijing Olympics.

Watley also piloted Team USA to a Gold medal at the 2002, 2006 and 2010 Women's World Championship. She was also part of four championship teams at the World Cup of Softball (2005, 2006, 2007, 2009).

JENNY DALTON-HILL

GENERAL MANAGER

Jenny Dalton-Hill's experience at the highest levels of softball and baseball has been beneficial to the Chicago Bandits during her two years as the team's general manager with a pair of postseason appearances and 31 regular season victories.

The Bandits earned their second consecutive AUSL Championship berth this past summer after finishing in a tie with Utah for first place in the standings with a 16-9 record. Led by AUSL Hitter of the Year Sami Williams, Chicago paced the league in several offensive categories, including batting average (.311), runs scored (139), hits (203), runs batted in (130) and doubles (39). The Bandits also led the six-team circuit with 20 stolen bases and 73 walks.

In the league's inaugural season, Dalton-Hill saw her squad advance to the AUSL Championship Series after compiling a 15-9 regular season record. Infielder Erin Coffel was named the league's Most Valuable Player and Hitter of the Year after anchoring the league with four triples and 28 runs batted in.

The Bandits also owned the league's top offense after producing a .331 team average in addition to leading the four-team group in numerous statistical categories, including runs scored (152), hits (228), home runs (38) and stolen bases (22).

Dalton-Hill heads the Bandits front office while also serving in her second stint as a member of USA Baseball's Board of Directors. She previously held the role from 2012-20 before reclaiming a spot on the Board in 2022.

Dalton-Hill has also served as a coach for the inaugural USA Baseball Girls Camp and was a part of the Women's National Team Development Program in 2011, 2014 and 2021. In 2012, she guided the U.S. Women's National Team to an International Baseball Federation (IBF) Women's Baseball World Cup Silver medal as an assistant coach.

One of the most prolific hitters in Arizona program history, Dalton-Hill piloted the Wildcats to a 232-26 (.899) record and three NCAA Division I titles in her four seasons from 1993-96. She was a three-time NFCA All-America selection and garnered Pac-10 Conference Player of the Year distinction in 1996.

Dalton-Hill, the 1996 Honda Award winner, also stands as the first player in Arizona history to claim the league's Triple Crown after leading the Pac-10 with a .469 batting average, 25 home runs and 109 RBI during her final season.

A career .412 hitter with the Wildcats, Dalton-Hill finished her college career with 76 home runs, 291 hits and a remarkable 328 runs batted in, which remains the NCAA Division I record after nearly 30 years. She is one of six players in NCAA Division I history to drive in 300 or more runs.

Dalton-Hill, who was inducted into the Arizona Sports Hall of Fame in 2001, joined the collegiate softball coaching ranks as a volunteer assistant coach at her alma mater during the 1997 season when the Wildcats collected their fifth NCAA crown. She also had a two-year stint as an assistant coach at Kentucky.

In addition to her standout softball career, Dalton-Hill competed on the baseball diamond playing for the Colorado Silver Bullets under MLB Hall of Famer Phil Niekro during the team's final season in 1997. She batted .300 and guided the Silver Bullets to the only winning season in team history with a 23-22 record. The team is enshrined in Cooperstown as part of the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

Dalton-Hill went on to join Team USA in the 2010 Women's Baseball World Cup, helping the squad earn a Bronze medal with a 15-5 victory against Venezuela. She led Team USA in the Bronze medal game by going 2-for-2 with three runs batted in.

In 2022, Dalton-Hill became just the seventh woman to be inducted to the Little League Hall of Excellence. She was a part of the 1989 Senior League Softball World Series, advancing to the championship game.

Dalton-Hill has worked with ESPN as a softball analyst since 2013, including the Women's College World Series and the Little League Softball® World Series. She was also part of the 7Innings Podcast that features collegiate softball and the journey to the Women's College World Series.

Dalton-Hill's high school alma mater, Glendale High School, renamed its softball field (Dalton Field) in her honor in 2005 along with retiring her jersey number.

SHONDA STANTON

HEAD COACH

Shonda Stanton's success at the college level translated very well to the Athletes Unlimited Softball League (AUSL) during her inaugural campaign in 2026 as she mentored the Chicago Bandits to a tie of first place in the league standings with a 16-9 record and an entry into the AUSL Championship.

Under Stanton's tutelage, the Bandits owned the league's top offense with a .311 average in addition to an AUSL-high 139 runs scored. Chicago also registered a league-best 203 hits in 25 games while collecting 39 doubles and nine triples.

The Bandits' pitching staff also ranked among the league leaders by allowing just 103 runs in 25 games, which were good for second place in the six-team circuit. Chicago pitchers also allowed a league-best 37 walks in 25 games with just four wild pitches.

Stanton, who completed her ninth season as the head coach at Indiana University in 2026, owns an 891-632-2 career record as a college head coach, including 578 victories over 18 seasons at Marshall from 2000-17.

In nine years at Indiana, Stanton has compiled a 286-173 record with the Hoosiers. Stanton's squads have won 40 or more games in three of the last four seasons, including a 44-18 mark in 2026. In addition, the Hoosiers have also qualified for the NCAA Tournament in four straight seasons for the first time in program history.

Led by consensus All-America performer Taylor Minnick, the Hoosiers reached the NCAA Tournament in 2025 and finished with a 34-20 record. Minnick, one of two Hoosiers to earn All-America status, completed her career as the program's all-time leader in home runs (45), doubles (61) and batting average (.390).

The 2023 season saw Indiana reach the 40-win plateau for the first time in 30 years. The Hoosiers, who secured their first NCAA Tournament berth since 2011, were anchored by Taryn Kern, who earned Big Ten Conference Player and Freshman of the Year status.

In just her second year with the Hoosiers, Stanton saw her squad earn a spot in the USA Today/NFCA Coaches Poll for the first time since 1996 after sprinting to a program-record 14-0 start. The season closed with a 36-21 mark, including the most non-conference victories (26) by the Hoosiers since 1986. The team also set a single-season program record with 141 stolen bases, which stands third in Big Ten history.

Prior to joining the Hoosiers, Stanton compiled a 578-434-2 record over an 18-year tenure at Marshall. Under Stanton's guidance, the Thundering Herd won 30 or more games 12 times while claiming four conference titles. Marshall also made a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances with Stanton at the helm.

Marshall student-athletes collected 76 All-Conference citations during Stanton's tenure in addition to nine major conference awards and 34 NFCA All-Region certificates. In addition, Stanton's teams accounted for 118 NFCA All-America Scholar-Athlete awards.

Stanton also piloted the development of current AUSL standout Morgan Zerkle, who holds several Marshall records, including career batting average (.451), career triples (14), single-season batting average (.506), single-season runs scored (62) and single-season hits (89).

Stanton started her head coaching career with IUPUI (now IU Indy) in 1999 where the program started its tenure as a Division I program with a 27-24 record.

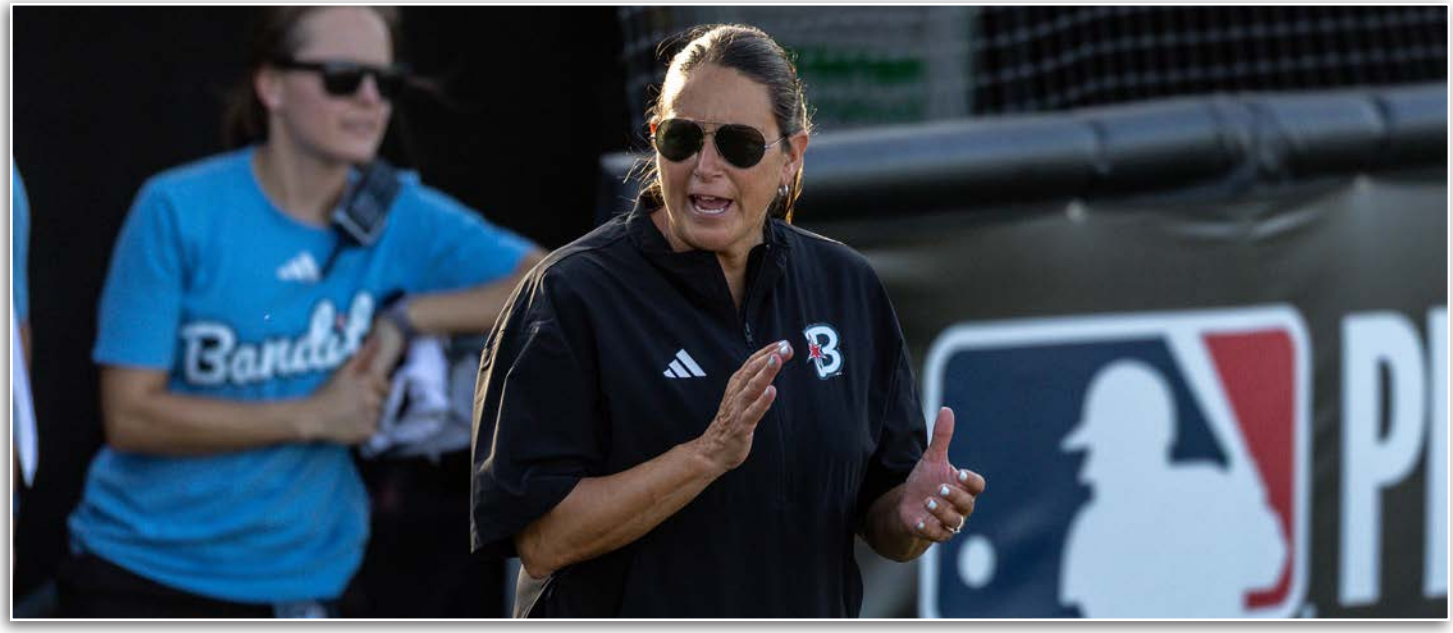

Stanton began her coaching career as a graduate assistant at Ashland University in 1997 while earning her master's degree in sports science. The Eagles compiled a 94-23 record in Stanton's two seasons, including a program-record 53 wins in 1998, with a pair of NCAA Tournament entries.

In addition to her collegiate experience, Stanton coached the Akron Racers in the NPF in 2007 and 2008 where she guided second baseman Veronica Wootsen to the 2007 Nokona Gold Glove Offensive Player of the Year award.

Stanton currently serves as the vice president of publications on the NFCA board and is a member of the association's All-America committee. She has also held positions with the NFCA Head Coaches Council in addition to serving as a featured speaker and clinician.

A four-year starter at UNC Greensboro from 1992-95, Stanton led the Spartans to back-to-back Big South Conference championships while claiming Second-Team All-Big South plaudits during her junior season. She ranks seventh in program history with 143 runs scored, while her 41 stolen bases are good for ninth on the Spartans' all-time chart.

Stanton, who earned a bachelor's degree from UNCG in history, went on to play in the Women's ASA Fastpitch Summerball league with the Chet Smith Lady All-Stars in Columbus, Ohio and the Buckeye Slammers in Akron, Ohio, between 1994-96. She helped both teams to Class "A" National Qualifiers and earned the Class "B" National Championship in 1994.

COURTNEY MARTINEZ

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

Courtney Martinez's experience and eye for hitting were a major benefit for head coach Shonda Stanton's staff during her second year on the Chicago Bandits' staff in 2026.

Martinez led a Chicago offense which anchored the six-team AUSL with a .311 team batting average along with a league-best 203 hits over 25 games. The Bandits, anchored by AUSL Hitter of the Year Sami Williams, also paced the circuit with 139 runs scored, 39 doubles and nine triples while drawing a league-best 73 walks.

Martinez completed her third season on the coaching staff at the University of Utah earlier this spring, including her second campaign as the Utes' associate head coach. Led by All-Big 12 Conference selections Hailey Maestretti and Mia Gomez, the Utes compiled a 35-20-1 record, including a 10-13-1 mark in league play.

Utah also featured a league-high four choices on the Big 12 All-Freshman Team as newcomers Danika Wilson, Cian Noli and Payton Crank joined Gomez on the squad.

The Utes made their debut in the Big 12 Conference during the 2025 campaign. Kennedy Proctor became the first Utah catcher to earn All-Conference honors since 2011 when she earned a spot on the All-Big 12 Second Team. Proctor, who also claimed Big 12 All-Freshman Team distinction, was joined on the All-Big 12 Second Team by Kaylah Nelsen.

During Martinez's first season in Salt Lake City, the Utes advanced to the NCAA Tournament and won at least 35 games for the second time in the previous seven seasons. In addition, Abby Dayton (.431) and Haley Denning (.418) became just the second duo in program history to finish a season with a batting average of .400 or better.

Martinez joined the Utes' program after serving as an assistant coach at Iowa State for six seasons from 2018-23, including her final two years as an associate head coach. She guided the Cyclones to five seasons with 40 or more home runs, including 67 homers in 2021 en route to the program's first NCAA Regional appearance since 1988.

Martinez also mentored Sami Williams to NFCA First-Team All-America plaudits in 2021, becoming the first player in Iowa State history to earn the distinction. Williams used Martinez's guidance to set a pair of school records with a .446 batting average and 21 home runs, while earning a selection in the 2021 Athletes Unlimited Pro Softball College Draft.

Martinez, who worked primarily with the Cyclones' hitters and infielders, saw Iowa State become one of the most efficient defenses in the Big 12 Conference, ranking fifth in the nation with 32 double plays during the 2019 campaign. Iowa State also picked up 37 victories that season, the second-highest total in program history.

Before her time at Iowa State, Martinez was an assistant coach at UNLV for two years, including a stint as the Rebels' associate head coach during the 2017 campaign. She also spent two years as an assistant coach at Cal State Bakersfield, helping the Roadrunners transition from being an independent to playing in the Western Athletic Conference.

A native of Chino Hills, California, Martinez opened her coaching career with a pair of volunteer coaching opportunities with Cal State Fullerton (2009-10) and Azusa Pacific (2010-11).

Martinez, a four-year letter winner at Cal State Fullerton from 2006-09, led the Titans to four consecutive NCAA Regional appearances, including a Super Regional berth in 2007. She also earned Second-Team Big West Conference status as a senior after leading the team in batting average (.327), on-base percentage (.402) and slugging percentage (.584).

Martinez, who finished her college career with a .260 batting average along with 20 home runs and 60 runs batted in, ranks sixth in Cal State Fullerton history by being hit by a pitch 30 times in her career, while her 43 career sacrifice hits are good for seventh on the Titans' all-time chart.

A 2009 graduate of Cal State Fullerton with a bachelor's degree in communications, Martinez also earned her master's degree in college counseling and student development from Azusa Pacific in 2013.

TARYNE MOWATT-MCKINNEY

ASSISTANT COACH

Under the watchful eye of Taryne Mowatt-McKinney, the Chicago Bandits' pitching staff was a major factor in the team's success during her first season in the Athletes Unlimited Softball League (AUSL) this past summer.

Mowatt-McKinney's group ranked second in the AUSL with a 3.64 earned run average and 103 runs scored in 25 games. The Bandits also allowed a league-low 37 walks while throwing just four wild pitches. Lexi Kilfoyl finsihed second in the six-team league with a 1.95 earned run average and six victories, while limiting opposing hitters to a .222 batting average.

A native of Corona, California, Mowatt-McKinney completed her third season as the pitching coach at Mississippi State this spring, leading the Bulldogs to the NCAA Women's College World Series. Under Mowatt-McKinney's tutelage, the Bulldogs have collected 72 complete games after totaling 28 combined complete games in the previous three seasons.

In addition, the Bulldogs have seen a pair of pitchers rise into the professional ranks, including 2025 AUSL College Draft selection Raelin Chaffin. Chaffin became just the fifth pitcher in program history with 200 or more strikeouts in a season, while her 23 victories in 2025 rank as the fourth-highest single-season total in program history.

Mowatt-McKinney made an immediate impact in 2024 as the Bulldogs' pitching staff authored three no-hitters, the most in a single season since 2006. Mississippi State also ranked seventh in the nation in fewest walks allowed, while holding ninth place in strikeout-to-walk ratio and walk rate.

Aspen Wesley also flourished during Mowatt-McKinney's inaugural campaign in Starkville, earning Second-Team All-Southeastern Conference status after posting a career-high 15 victories and four shutouts. She also tallied nine wins against SEC opponents, matching the school single-season record.

Mowatt-McKinney, a 2009 graduate of the University of Arizona with a degree in communications, spent six seasons at her alma mater prior to joining the staff at Mississippi State. The Wildcats reached the NCAA Women's College World Series in three consecutive tournaments from 2019-22, while the pitching staff fashioned a sub-2.00 earned run average in three straight years.

During the COVID-shortened 2020 season, Arizona ranked sixth in NCAA Division I with a 1.61 earned run average while holding opposing hitters to a .183 batting average.

Mowatt-McKinney mentored Wildcat pitchers to a pair of All-America citations along with three All-Region certificates and seven All-Pac-12 Conference selections. In addition, a pair of Mowatt-McKinney's pupils – Taylor McQuillin and Alyssa Denham – went on to the professional level with Athletes Unlimited.

Mowatt-McKinney served as an assistant coach at Ole Miss for two seasons, guiding the Rebels to 84 wins and a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances in 2016 and 2017. Ole Miss, which won over 40 games in each of her two years, also secured the 2017 SEC Tournament title while reaching the NCAA Super Regionals for the first time in program history.

Mowatt-McKinney began her coaching career at California Baptist from 2012-14 where she guided the Lancers to an NCAA Regional appearance and a pair of Pac West Conference crowns.

During her playing career, Mowatt-McKinney was the ace of the Wildcat pitching staff which claimed back-to-back NCAA titles in 2006 and 2007. She was recognized as the NCAA Women's College World Series Most Outstanding Player in 2007 after setting tournament records for innings pitched (60.0), strikeouts (76) and complete games (8).

The Second-Team NFCA All-America performer went on to win a pair of ESPY Awards for her performance in lifting the Wildcats to their eighth NCAA Division I title.

Mowatt-McKinney, who accumulated a 100-33 record at Arizona, ranks second in program history with 1,267 strikeouts and 877.2 innings pitched. Her 42 victories, 50 complete games and 522 strikeouts during the 2007 campaign still stand as the Wildcats' single-season standards.

The sixth overall choice in the 2008 National Pro Fastpitch Draft by the Washington Glory, Mowatt-McKinney played for five different teams in her six-year professional career, including the Den Bosch Gryphons in Holland.

ALEX IBARRA

ASSISTANT COACH

In his first season as a member of the Chicago Bandits' coaching staff, Alex Ibarra's experience with the Athletes Unlimited Softball League (AUSL) paid dividends for the club.

The Bandits secured their second straight AUSL Championship appearance after finishing in a tie with Utah for first place in the league standings with a 15-9 record. Chicago also held the league's top offense with a .311 team average and 139 runs scored across 25 games.

Ibarra returned to the AUSL after spending the first week of the 2025 season as a member of Howard Dobson's staff with the Talons. He also spent time as a batting practice pitcher for AU Pro Softball during the 2022 Championship Season and 2023 AUX season.

Ibarra finished his second season as an assistant coach at Appalachian State this spring, guiding the Mountaineers to a 29-21 record. Infielder Makayla McClain garnered First-Team All-Sun Belt Conference notice after posting a .391 batting average with 18 home runs and 46 runs batted in.

Infielder Grace Barrett joined McClain on the All-Sun Belt Team with Second-Team honors after setting career highs with six home runs and 46 runs batted in.

The Mountaineers authored a 23-27 record in Ibarra's inaugural campaign in 2025. McClain anchored a trio of Appalachian State selections to the All-Sun Belt squad after claiming First-Team status in addition to a spot on the NFCA All-Mid-Atlantic Region Second Team.

Prior to joining the Appalachian State staff, the Cedar Hill, Texas, native was a graduate student manager for the LSU softball team, assisting with day-to-day operations for the program in addition to throwing batting practice. During his time in Baton Rouge, the Tigers secured 155 wins and reached the NCAA Tournament four times.

Ibarra started his college career as a manager at UT Arlington in 2019. The Mavericks won 36 games during his lone season and won the National Invitational Softball Championship.

Ibarra was named to the first-ever USA Softball U-23 Men's National Team as a pitcher. He also earned a spot on the 2018 USA Softball Junior Men's National Team and competed in the WBSC World Championship in Prince Albert, Canada.

Ibarra was also on the coaching staff for the USA Women's National Team in October 2022 and helped the squad earn a berth in the 2023 Pan American Games.

Ibarra earned his bachelor's degree in sports administration from LSU in 2023 and is currently working toward his master's degree in sports administration.

DANA SORENSEN

GENERAL MANAGER

Dana Sorensen finished her second season as the general manager of the Carolina Blaze in 2026.

In Sorensen's second year, Carolina posted a 9-16 record to earn fifth place in the six-team AUSL standings. The Blaze finished third in the league with 109 runs scored, while their 67 walks were good for second place in the circuit.

Carolina also boasted the league's Rookie of the Year for the second straight season after catcher Reese Atwood earned the award. The University of Texas product completed her first professional season among the AUSL's leaders with a .309 average and eight home runs

The Blaze finished with a 7-17 record during Sorensen's first season at the helm last summer. Infielder Ana Gold claimed AUSL Rookie of the Year honors after closing her inaugural professional season with a .373 batting average, which paced all rookies and ranked seventh overall in the league.

Sorensen joined the Blaze front office after running her own softball coaching organization, Sorensen Elite. She has worked with pitchers across all levels of softball, including the professional, college and high school ranks.

A starting pitcher for Stanford from 2000-04, Sorensen accumulated three NFCA All-America certificates, including First-Team distinction as a sophomore and senior. The four-time NFCA All-Pacific Region performer left her mark on the Cardinal program, graduating with nearly every single-season pitching mark in school history. She compiled a 105-36 career record with a program-record 1.05 career ERA.

In addition to being one of three players in Stanford history with 100 or more victories, Sorensen holds the distinction of being one of two pitchers to post 1,000 or more strikeouts after notching 1,154 strikeouts for the Cardinal. She also accrued five career no-hitters, including a pair of perfect games.

The Cardinal reached the NCAA Tournament during each of Sorensen's four seasons, including a pair of entries into the Women's College World Series in 2001 and 2004. She was inducted into the Stanford Athletics Hall of Fame in 2015, earning the honor of being one of just four softball players to be enshrined.

After her college career, Sorensen played two seasons in the National Pro Fastpitch (NPF) league, spending the 2005 season with the Arizona Heat following one season with the New England Riptide. She was a member of the USA Softball Elite Team in 2005 and attended the USA Softball National Team Camp five times.

Sorensen opened her coaching career as an assistant coach at UC Davis for three years before spending a pair of seasons at Oregon State as the team's pitching coach.

A 2004 Stanford graduate, Sorensen holds a bachelor's degree in sociology and communications and received her master's degree in exercise and sport science from North Carolina in 2006.

KARA DILL

HEAD COACH

Kara Dill's first year as the Carolina Blaze's head coach may not have ended with a berth in the AUSL Championship, but the team made positive improvements to set the stage for a bright future.

Carolina, which finished the 2026 campaign in fifth place with a 9-16 record, ranked among the league's leaders with 109 runs scored in 25 games, while standing second in the circuit with 67 walks. Catcher Reese Atwood garnered AUSL Rookie of the Year plaudits after finishing her first professional season among the league leaders in batting average (.309) and home runs (8).

The 10th head coach in UT Arlington softball history, Dill completed her fourth season as the Mavericks' bench boss earlier this spring. Under her guidance, UT Arlington's win total has increased each year, including a 24-win campaign in 2026. The Mavericks have also qualified for the Western Athletic Conference Tournament in each of Dill's four years at the helm.

Three UT Arlington players received All-WAC distinction this spring. Peyton Holland claimed WAC Co-Defensive Player of the Year honors in addition to a spot on the All-WAC Second Team, while Mia McNulty garnered First-Team All-WAC notice. Dee McClarity completed the trio by joining Holland on the All-WAC Second Team.

Dill led the Mavericks to the WAC Tournament quarterfinals in 2024 while mentoring Camille Corona, who earned NFCA All-Region status in addition to First-Team All-WAC plaudits after pacing the Mavericks with a .401 batting average and 31 runs scored.

In Dill's inaugural season with UT Arlington, the Mavericks fashioned a 22-30 record, including an 11-13 mark in WAC play. Freshman Marley Neises earned a spot on the All-WAC Second Team after logging a .382 batting average.

Prior to leading the Mavericks, Dill served as the pitching coach at Texas A&M for six seasons. She helped the Aggies secure their 20th consecutive NCAA Regional appearance during her final season as the Texas A&M staff combined for 13 shutouts in 2022.

During the 2021 campaign, the Aggies' pitching staff registered a pair of no-hitters for the first time in nearly a decade.

Texas A&M's pitching staff showed immediate improvement during Dill's first season, lowering its combined earned run average from 3.86 to 2.08, as the Aggies earned a berth in the 2017 NCAA Women's College World Series.

Before arriving in College Station, Dill worked as an assistant coach for the National Pro Fastpitch's Scrap Yard Dawgs in 2016. The LaGrange, Ohio, native also guided LSU to a pair of NCAA Women's College World Series berths in 2015 and 2016 after opening her coaching career with a Women's College World Series appearance with Kentucky in 2014.

A four-year letter winner at Kentucky from 2010-13, Dill compiled a .330 batting average with 201 total base hits and 57 stolen bases, which are tied for eighth in program history. The two-time Second-Team All-Southeastern Conference performer also claimed a spot on the NFCA All-Region Second Team in 2011 after batting .377 with 44 runs scored.

An outstanding student at Kentucky who graduated with her bachelor's degree three semesters early, Dill also earned her master's degree at Kentucky and was named to the Frank G. Ham Society of Character, which honors Kentucky student-athletes who have shown an extraordinary commitment to academic excellence, athletic participation, personal development and career preparation while serving as a role model. In addition, she was a nominee for the NCAA's Senior CLASS Award.

LINDSAY LEFTWICH

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

Lindsay Leftwich completed her first season as an assistant coach for Coach Kara Dill and the Carolina Blaze in 2026, guiding the squad to a 9-16 record and a fifth place finish in the six-team-league standings.

A collegiate coach with nearly two decades of experience, Leftwich completed her third season as the head coach at nearby NC State earlier this spring after serving as an assistant coach for Beth Torina at LSU for 12 years.

Leftwich owns an 82-78 record with the Wolfpack after ending the 2026 campaign with a 27-26 record and an appearance in the Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament. Leftwich mentored Lily Livingston to All-ACC Second Team and All-Freshman Team honors, while Morgen Talley joined Livingston on the league's All-Freshman unit.

Leftwich began the 2026 campaign with the 17th-ranked recruiting class in the nation, including the fourth-best group of newcomers in the ACC, which was the highest rated recruiting class for the program since 2020.

Leftwich guided the 2025 squad to a 25-29 mark and saw a trio of players garner NFCA All-Region accolades.

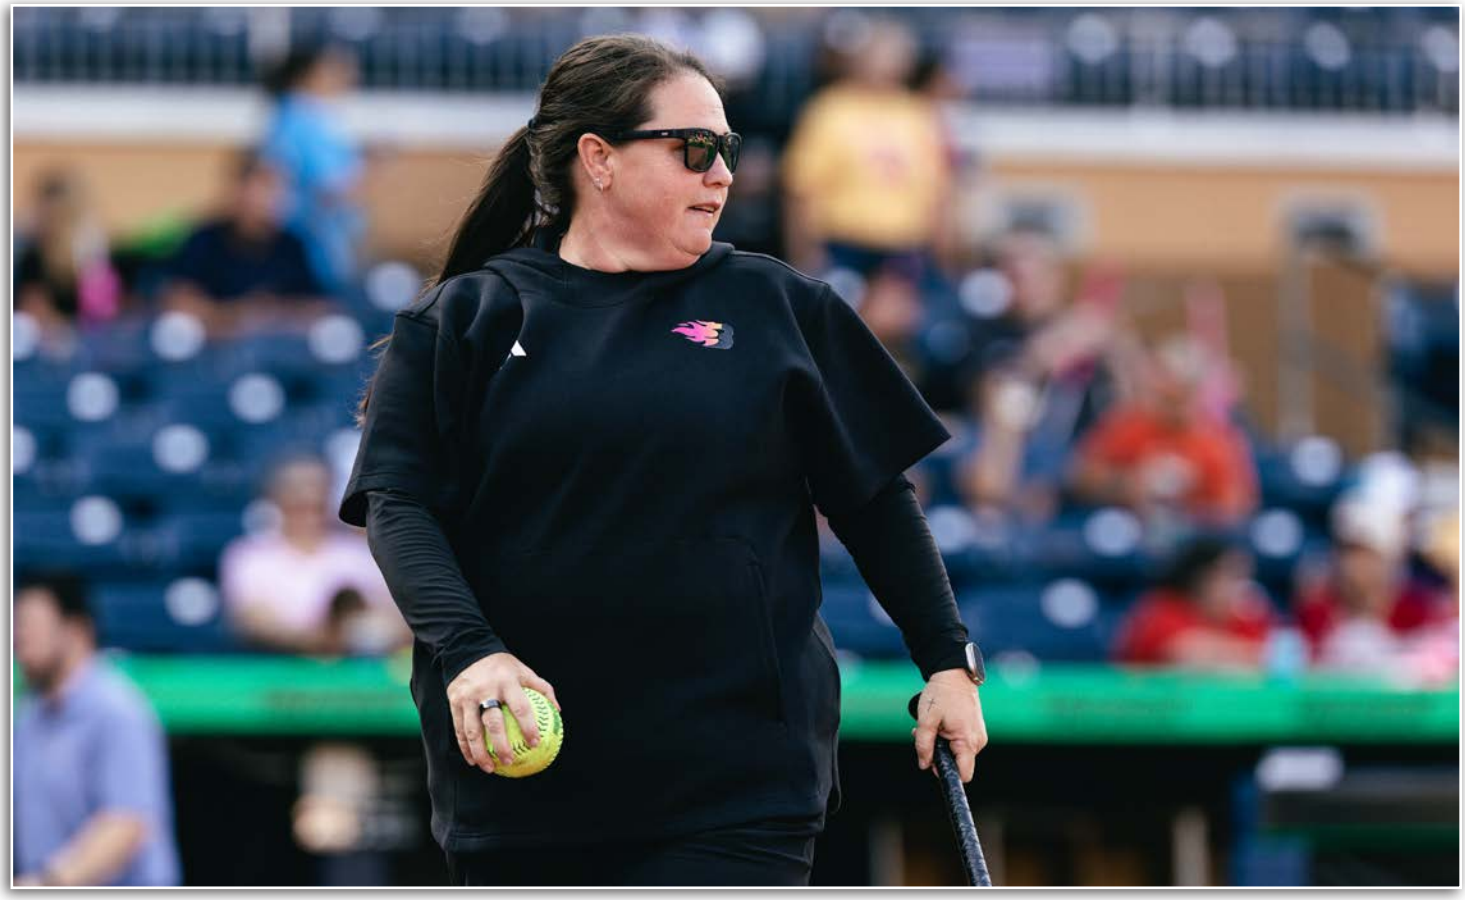

The fourth head coach in NC State softball history, Leftwich piloted the Wolfpack to a 30-23 record in her inaugural campaign in 2024, marking a 12-win improvement from the previous season.

Prior to taking over the Wolfpack, Leftwich helped LSU reach the NCAA Regionals 10 times across her 12 seasons with the Tigers. The program advanced to the NCAA Women's College World Series four times, including a pair of appearances in the WCWS Finals, and was ranked inside the Top-25 for 166 weeks from 2012-23.

Leftwich also served as Torina's top assistant for four years at Florida International University. She helped the Golden Panthers clinch a berth in the NCAA Tournament for the second time in program history after garnering a 38-21 record and its first NCAA Tournament victory in 2010.

Leftwich began her career as the pitching coach at Wichita State in 2006 before serving as the director of softball operations at New Mexico in 2007.

A collegiate standout at Northwestern State, Leftwich earned NFCA All-Southeast Region and All-Southland Conference laurels as a sophomore. She graduated from NSU in 2005 with a bachelor's degree in psychology and minors in art and substance abuse prevention.

BRITTANY

CERVANTES

ASSISTANT COACH

Brittany Cervantes returned to the professional ranks to join the Carolina Blaze's coaching staff during the 2026 Athletes Unlimited Softball League (AUSL) season.

The Blaze authored a 9-16 record during Cervantes' inaugural AUSL campaign while boasting the league's Rookie of the Year recipient with catcher Reese Atwood.

A native of Chatsworth, California, Cervantes completed her seventh season as the director of softball operations with Kentucky in 2026. She joined head coach Rachel Lawson's staff ahead of the 2019 campaign after being Lawson's first recruit with the Wildcats.

Cervantes represented Mexico at the 2020 Tokyo Olympics where she guided the team to a fourth-place finish. She joined former teammate Alexia Lacatena as the first Kentucky softball players to compete in the Olympics and finished the tournament with a .333 batting average while logging a home run and two runs scored.

Cervantes started her professional playing career by signing with the National Pro Fastpitch's Chicago Bandits in 2012. She went on to play five seasons and claimed back-to-back Cowles Cup titles in 2015 and 2016. She was recognized as the NPF Offensive Player of the Year in 2015 after hitting .358 with nine home runs, 23 runs batted in and 26 runs scored.

Cervantes also claimed 2016 Cowles Cup Most Valuable Player plaudits after hitting .500 with three home runs and six runs batted in. She also tallied a hit in all six games.

After being traded to the Scrap Yard Dawgs in 2017, she won her third consecutive Cowles Cup championship after leading the team to its first league title. She closed her professional career in 2019 by guiding the USSSA Pride to the Cowles Cup title.

A four-year standout at Kentucky, Cervantes graduated as the program's leader in several statistical categories, including home runs (48) and runs batted in (161). She also became the first player in program history to record at least 10 home runs in each of her four seasons.

A 2011 NFCA All-Region Team pick, Cervantes garnered First-Team All-Southeastern Conference honors in 2012 as a senior. She was also a member of the 2009 All-SEC Freshman Team.

KYLER HOLTON

ASSISTANT COACH

Kyler Holton joined the Carolina Blaze staff as an assistant coach during the 2026 Athletes Unlimited Softball League (AUSL) season.

Under Holton's tutelage, rookie Karlyn Pickens emerged as one of the AUSL's top pitchers after ranking fifth in the league with a 3.13 earned run average during her first professional season. Pickens also tallied 60 strikeouts over 60.1 innings, which were good for second in the circuit.

Keilani Ricketts also provided a reliable option for Holton's staff out of the bullpen, tying for the league lead with 17 appearances, including 14 relief outings.

Holton completed his first season as a member of Ashley Wade's staff at UNCW, guiding the Seahawks to a 32-19 record and the Coastal Athletic Association South Division title. Three players earned All-CAA laurels, including freshman Camille Hamilton, who was honored as the league's Pitcher of the Year and Rookie of the Year.

Prior to arriving in Wilmington, Holton spent two seasons as a graduate assistant on Lonni Alameda's staff at Florida State. He helped develop the Seminoles' pitching staff in addition to assisting with program support and community engagement projects.

Florida State, which reached the NCAA Super Regionals during both of Holton's seasons, claimed the Atlantic Coast Conference regular season title in 2025. The Seminoles finished with a 49-12 record that year while boasting an ACC-best 2.20 earned run average with 15 shutouts.

Holton served as a student manager and graduate assistant at Ole Miss, helping the Rebels reach the NCAA Tournament in each of his two seasons.

In addition to his collegiate coaching experience, Holton was an assistant coach for the Georgia Bombers Lewis Fastpitch Team 18U in Atlanta where he guided the pitching staff and assisted in scouting efforts.

JAMI LOBPRIES

GENERAL MANAGER

General manager Jami Lobpries guided the Portland Cascade into the Athletes Unlimited Softball League's postseason during her first season at the helm in 2026.

Portland secured third place in the AUSL standings during its inaugural campaign to claim the final spot in the league's three-team postseason event after logging a 14-11 record.

Rookie utility player Megan Grant enjoyed a stellar first professional season after belting 10 home runs and ranking fourth in the league with a .813 slugging percentage. Outfielder Korbe Otis contributed 20 runs scored to earn a share of fourth place in the league rankings, while Grant and fellow rookie Sydney Stewart were tied for second with 14 walks apiece.

In the circle, the duo of rookie Kenzie Brown and Carley Hoover anchored a pitching staff that ranked second in the league with 139 strikeouts. The Cascade also allowed just 18 home runs in 25 games, which was the second-best mark in the AUSL.

Lobpries is no stranger to the sport of softball after serving as the CEO of The Alliance Fastpitch since the company's founding in 2020. The organization has created a national organizing body for travel fastpitch softball and helped bring the youth sport into national recognition.

In addition to her work with The Alliance Fastpitch, Lobpries was a co-founder for Players Collxctive, a marketing agency designed to help female athletes.

Lobpries spent five years working with USSSA before embarking on her latest ventures. Serving in multiple roles, Lobpries was the national director of USSSA Fastpitch for two years until 2010 where she oversaw the organization's national fastpitch program with national and youth programs in addition to the USSSA Pride professional team.

Before leading in a national role, Lobpries was the vice president of USSSA Fastpitch from 2015-17 where she developed the growth of the USA Elite Select national program and assisted in planning numerous amateur championships, including 12U, 14U, 16U and 18U. She also guided the premier event for the organization in the Select 30 All-American Program, which was designed to showcase youth softball athletes.

Lobpries spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Monmouth University where she guided the Hawks to their second 30-win season over a five-year span. She worked with the infielders and outfielders while serving as an assistant hitting coach.

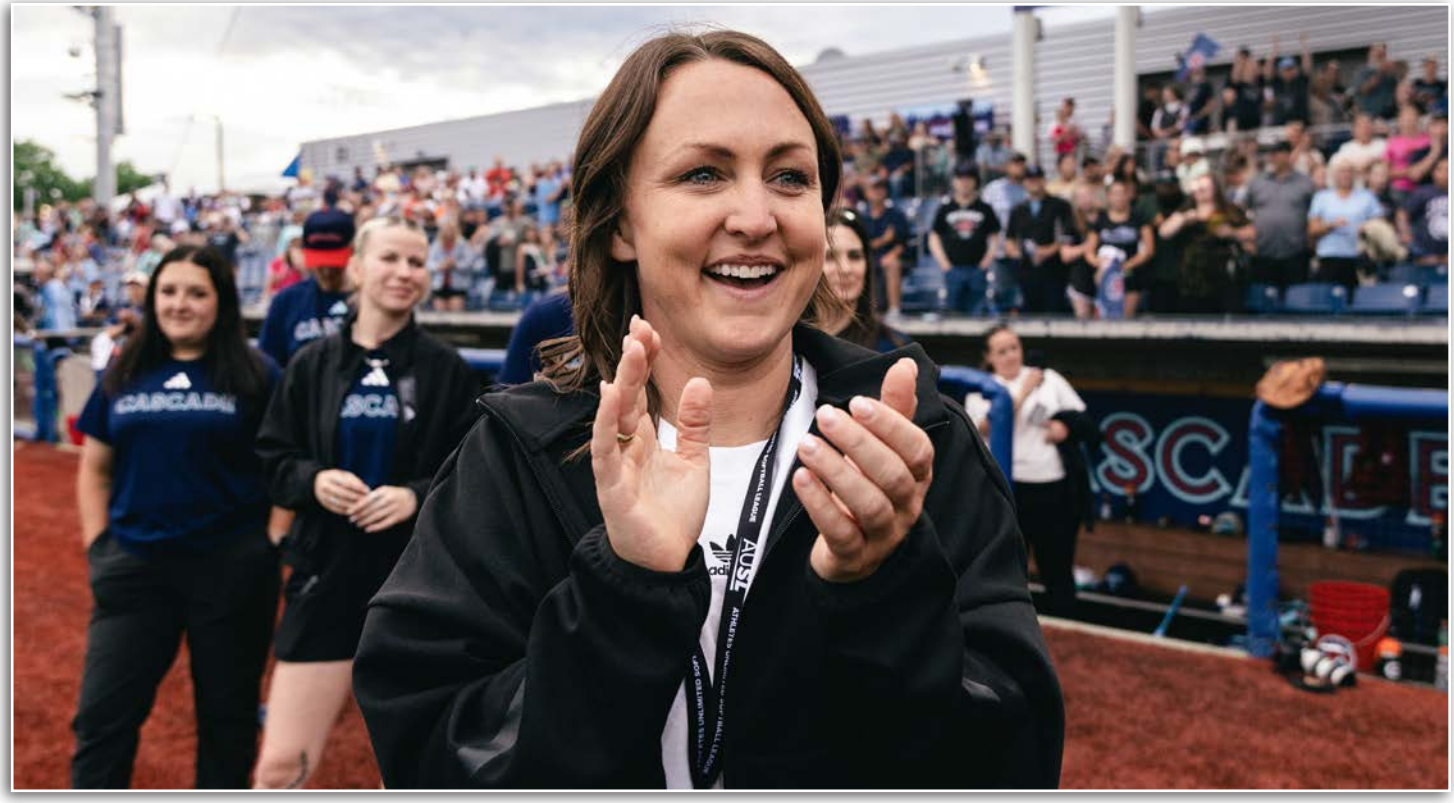

Lobpries began her coaching career as a graduate assistant at Texas A&M after finishing her playing career.

Lobpries, a native of Wharton, Texas, spent four seasons at Texas A&M and guided the Aggies to four straight NCAA Tournament appearances, including a pair of trips to the NCAA Women's College World Series. The Aggies, who claimed the Big 12 Conference regular season titles in 2005 and 2008, reached the WCWS Finals during Lobpries' senior season.

Lobpries was an All-Big 12 selection and claimed a spot on the Women's College World Series All-Tournament Team in 2008.

After finishing her college career, Lobpries played four seasons in National Pro Fastpitch. She began her career with the Philadelphia Force in 2009 and also played for the Tennessee Diamonds, NPF Diamonds and Carolina Diamonds.

A 2008 Distinguished Honor Graduate, Lobpries holds a bachelor's degree in sport management from Texas A&M. She also received her master's degree in sport management from Texas A&M in 2009.

KIRK

WALKER

GENERAL MANAGER

In his first season as the general manager of the Oklahoma City Spark, Kirk Walker finished just one game away from securing a berth in the Athletes Unlimited Softball Leauge's postseason field. But, the Spark's inaugural AUSL campaign still provided plenty of highlights.

Led by record-setting utility player Maya Brady, the Spark boasted one of the top offensive units in the AUSL with a league-high 39 home runs while ranking second with a .283 batting average. Brady, an All-AUSL Team selection, set a new league single-season standard after smashing 11 home runs, while ranking third in the circuit with a .403 batting average.

Infielder Sydney Romero anchored the Spark defensively, claiming the AUSL's first Rawlings Gold Glove Award while contributing a .376 batting average that ranked fourth in the league. Romero also tied for second with 21 runs scored while her 28 runs batted in finished second among the league's hitters.

Rookie Maya Johnson piloted the Spark pitching staff in 2026 after leading the AUSL with 11 starts. The first-year pro from Belmont tallied 31 strikeouts over 43.0 innings while logging a 4.88 earned run average.

Walker enjoyed instant success in his inaugural Athletes Unlimited Softball League season, serving as associate head coach for the 2025 AUSL champion Talons. Under Walker's guidance, the team fashioned a league-best 18-6 regular season record before posting a pair of wins over the Bandits in the AUSL Championship.

Anchored by AUSL Pitcher of the Year Georgina Corrick, the Talons paced the league in numerous pitching categories, including earned run average (3.97) and strikeouts (115). Corrick paced all pitchers with a 2.04 earned run average while logging a league-high six wins, including two shutouts.

Walker spent over two decades on the staff at UCLA, serving as the Bruins' director of softball administration after stints as an assistant coach and associate head coach. During his coaching stints with UCLA, the Bruins won seven NCAA titles and reached the Women's College World Series 18 times across 23 seasons.

With Walker in the dugout, the Bruins compiled an impressive 828-156-1 (.840) record with 11 conference regular season titles and a Pac-12 Conference Tournament championship. UCLA also earned the NCAA title in 1984, 1985, 1988, 1989, 1990, 1992 and 2019.

Serving as the Bruins' third base coach, Walker was a member of the 2019 NFCA National Coaching Staff of the Year in addition to earning six NFCA West Region Coaching Staff of the Year certificates. UCLA players accumulated 61 NFCA All-America citations, 127 All-Conference selections and 11 CoSIDA/College Sports Communicators Academic All-America® awards.

Walker embarked on his coaching career as an undergraduate assistant at UCLA in 1984 and was a member of the Bruins' staff for 11 years before taking the head coaching position at Oregon State. He worked closely with the Bruins' pitching staff and was instrumental in the development and success of numerous players, including Debbie Doom, Tracy Compton and Lisa Fernandez.

The all-time winningest coach in Oregon State history with a 594-490-3 (.548) record, Walker spent 18 seasons with the Beavers and led them to 10 postseason appearances and 40 or more wins in a season eight times.

In 2006, Walker led the Beavers to the first Women's College World Series appearance in program history with a No. 5 national ranking and a 43-16 mark, which included a school-record 28-game winning streak. Oregon State authored an identical 43-16 record and won its first Pac-10 Conference title in 2005, earning Walker the league's Coach of the Year honor.

Oregon State's most successful season came in 1999 when the Beavers won a school-record 47 games and reached the postseason for the first time in school history. Walker's staff was recognized as a co-recipient of the Speedline Pacific Region Coaching Staff of the Year award, while Walker was named the Pac-10's Coach of the Year.

Oregon State student-athletes accounted for 33 All-Conference citations, 10 NFCA All-America awards and 26 NFCA All-Region honors during Walker's tenure.

Walker returned to the UCLA dugout in advance of the 2013 season, serving as an assistant coach from 2013-22 before elevating to the role of associate head coach ahead of the 2023 season.

In addition to his success at the collegiate level, Walker was instrumental in the organization and coaching of the Finland Softball Women's National Team in 2022. The squad secured its first international victory against Turkey at the WBSC European Championships.

Walker also owns coaching experience at the professional level. He served as head coach for the PFX Pro Tour for four seasons in addition to being head coach and general manager for the California Commotion of the National Pro Fastpitch.

In 2017, Walker was an assistant coach on the USA Softball Junior Women's National Team that won the Gold medal at the WBSC Junior Women's World Championship. He was also one of 12 coaches to form the Team USA Women's National Team Coaches Pool for the 2004 Athens Olympics and spent time as an assistant coach for the USA Elite Team from 2002-04.

One of the most visible and vocal advocates for diversity and inclusion in sports, Walker is one of the founders of the Equality Coaching Alliance and the LGBTIQ+ Sports Coalition while serving as a founding board member for the Sports Equality Foundation. He is also the coordinator of the NFCA's LGBTQ+ Convention session.

In October 2024, Walker was named as one of the top 100 most powerful and influential LGBTQ people in sports by Outsports. He was inducted into the LGBTQ Sports Hall of Fame on August 10, 2025, in Las Vegas.

Walker's impact in softball extends beyond the coaching level. He is a co-founder and owner of the Mary Nutter Collegiate Classic, college softball's premier early-season tournament that has brought thousands of fans to the Palm Springs area for over 20 years.

In addition to his coaching success, Walker boasts a playing resume that includes being named Most Valuable Pitcher after winning the 2015 North America Fastpitch Association Men's Masters 40-and-Over National Championship. He won a second title in 2019 and has been an All-World Team selection six times.

Walker earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from UCLA in 1988.

AMBER FLORES

HEAD COACH

Making her debut in the Athletes Unlimited Softball League (AUSL) in 2026, Oklahoma City Spark Coach Amber Flores needed just one more win to secure the franchise's first entry into the AUSL's postseason. While the squad came up just shy of extending its season, there were plenty of reasons to smile for the Spark's leader.

Led by record-setting utility player Maya Brady, the Spark boasted one of the top offensive units in the AUSL with a league-high 39 home runs while ranking second with a .283 batting average. Brady, an All-AUSL Team selection, set a new league single-season standard after smashing 11 home runs, while ranking third in the circuit with a .403 batting average.

Infielder Sydney Romero anchored the Spark defensively, claiming the AUSL's first Rawlings Gold Glove Award while contributing a .376 batting average that ranked fourth in the league. Romero also tied for second with 21 runs scored while her 28 runs batted in finished second among the league's hitters.

Rookie Maya Johnson piloted the Spark pitching staff in 2026 after leading the AUSL with 11 starts. The first-year pro from Belmont tallied 31 strikeouts over 43.0 innings while logging a 4.88 earned run average.

In addition to serving as the Spark's bench boss, Flores also stands as the head coach for Seminole State College. In 14 seasons with the Trojans, Flores has compiled a 557-111 record, including a 47-4 record in 2026, with six NJCAA Region 2 Tournament titles and six NJCAA Softball National Tournament appearances.

Flores has also earned six Region 2 Softball Coach of the Year certificates while mentoring 22 NJCAA All-America selections and 72 All-Region performers.

Prior to arriving at Seminole State, Flores was an assistant coach at Stony Brook where she worked with the hitters and the outfielders. The Seawolves claimed a 36-17-1 record in 2012, which tied the program record for most single-season wins at the time.

Flores was a three-time All-America standout at Oklahoma and became the first two-time Big 12 Conference Player of the Year in league history. She helped the Sooners to three NCAA Super Regional appearances and a pair of Big 12 Tournament titles.

Flores reset the record books for the Sooners as she left the program as the team's all-time leader with 56 home runs, 163 walks, 99 extra-base hits, an impressive .701 career slugging percentage and a .524 on-base percentage. She was also a finalist for USA Softball's Collegiate Player of the Year three times.

After her collegiate career, Flores was selected fifth overall in the 2010 National Pro Fastpitch draft by the USSSA Pride.

Flores graduated from Oklahoma in 2010 with a bachelor's degree in sociology.

JO EVANS

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

Associate Head Coach Jo Evans' coaching experience was a great benefit to the Oklahoma City Spark as the squad navigated through its inaugural Athletes Unlimited Softball League (AUSL) season in 2026. While the Spark closed the summer just outside of the AUSL postseason field, Evans' contributions to the team were evident in the successes.

The Spark owned one of the top marks in the AUSL after combining to hit .283 while leading the league with 39 home runs, including an AUSL single-season record 11 round-trippers from All-AUSL utility player Maya Brady.

Anchored by Rawlings Gold Glove Award winner Sydney Romero, the Spark also excelled defensively after producing a league-best .980 fielding percentage with just 13 errors across 25 regular season games.

Evans completed her fourth season as the head softball coach at UC-Santa Barbara this spring, guiding the Gauchos to their second consecutive 30-win season with a 31-26 record and berth in the Big West Conference Championship Final.

Evans holds a 1,413-814-2 record in 41 seasons as a head coach. Her 1,413 wins trail only Patty Gasso at Oklahoma for the most wins by an active head coach across all NCAA divisions.

In 2025, Evans piloted UC Santa Barbara to a school-record 36 victories and the program's first Big West championship. The Gauchos also matched a program record with 17 wins in Big West play and reached the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2007.

In addition, the Gauchos, who reached the NCAA UCLA Regional final, set program single-season standards for home runs (50), hits (468) and runs scored (314). Malaya Johnson was honored as the Big West Pitcher of the Year in addition to securing NFCA All-West Region Third Team accolades after logging 24 victories with 22 complete games.

In Evans' first season at the helm of the program in 2023, the Gauchos fashioned a 26-22 record, which marked their most victories in over five seasons, while leading the Big West in hitting with a .292 batting average.

Prior to joining UC Santa Barbara, Evans spent 27 seasons as the head coach at Texas A&M where she led the Aggies to 22 NCAA Tournament appearances, including three entries into the NCAA Women's College World Series and seven NCAA Super Regional berths. Texas A&M won 30 or more games in 25-of-27 seasons under Evans' guidance, including 12 years with at least 40 victories.

Evans accumulated a 987-502-2 record at Texas A&M, mentoring 23 All-America honorees, 62 All-Region picks and 91 All-Conference selections. She also coached four Big 12 Conference Player of the Year selections, three Big 12 Pitcher of the Year recipients and two Big 12 Freshman of the Year winners.

Evans arrived at Texas A&M after seven seasons as the head coach of her alma mater, Utah. She led the Utes to a 222-143 record and coached the program to the 1991 NCAA Women's College World Series.

The Utes returned to the WCWS in 1994 after securing a 51-13 record during a historic season which featured the best winning percentage in team history and Evans receiving Western Athletic Conference Coach of the Year honors.

After serving as an assistant coach at Florida State in 1984, Evans started her head coaching career at Colorado State in 1986. She produced 91 wins over her four years and took the team from 13 wins during her first season to a 37-win campaign in her final year in 1989. Evans claimed High Country Athletic Conference Coach of the Year honors in each of her last two seasons in Fort Collins.

A four-year letter winner at Utah from 1979-82, Evans ranks third in program history with 13 career triples. She established the program's single-season standard with seven triples during her junior season.

Evans earned High Country All-Conference honors after leading the Utes to a berth in the World Series. An ASA All-America selection, she was inducted into the Utah Athletics Hall of Fame in 2017 after being enshrined into the NFCA Hall of Fame in 2015.

LISA FERNANDEZ

GENERAL MANAGER

Lisa Fernandez has experienced nothing but success in every phase of her softball career. Regardless of whether she is playing, coaching or serving as an executive, winning is a part of Fernandez's softball journey.

And that success has continued into Fernandez's tenure in the Athletes Unlimited Softball League (AUSL) with a pair of league championships along with the most regular season wins (34) of any team in the circuit.

Fernandez led Utah to a near identical path to the AUSL championship in 2026. The Talons used a strong pitching staff to secure the league's best regular season record at 16-9 before sweeping two games against Chicago in the AUSL Championship for the franchise's second postseason crown.

AUSL Pitcher of the Year Montana Fouts enjoyed a record-setting season after leading the league with seven wins, 63 strikeouts and 62.1 innings pitched, which were all single-season records. Meanwhile, Georgina Corrick authored a league-best 1.12 earned run average in her second year with the Talons, giving Utah a powerful combination in the circle.

Infielder Bri Ellis showed no signs of a sophomore slump en route to claiming AUSL Comeback Player of the Year accolades after producing a .353 average and a team-high five home runs. Outfielder Jadelyn Allchin also excelled in her second year with the Talons, leading the squad with 19 runs scored and 17 runs batted in while collecting AUSL Championship Most Valuable Player status following a 3-for-6 effort against the Bandits in the two-game sweep.

The Talons completed the inaugural AUSL campaign with a league-best 18-6 record before defeating the Bandits twice to claim the league championship. The Talons' roster featured AUSL Pitcher of the Year Georgina Corrick, who paced the circuit with a 2.04 earned run average and six victories, including a pair of shutouts.

Led by Corrick, the Talons' pitching staff authored a league-best 3.97 earned run average while also leading the circuit with 115 strikeouts.

Fernandez completed her 28th season on the coaching staff at UCLA this spring, including her fourth year as the Mark Kalmansohn Associate Head Coach where her primary focus is working with the team's hitters and infielders while managing the program's recruiting department.

While on the Bruins' bench, the team has compiled a 1,267-272-2 record with five NCAA titles and 13 Women's College World Series appearances. UCLA has also claimed seven regular season conference championships and one league tournament title.

As a member of the Bruins' staff, Fernandez has been honored as NFCA National Coaching Staff of the Year three times (2004, 2010, 2019) and NFCA Regional Coaching Staff of the Year nine times (2000, 2010, 2014-16, 2019, 2021, 2024).

Before assuming the associate head coach role at her alma mater, Fernandez led a pitching staff that has collected 21 total NFCA All-America selections and ranked in the top 10 nationally in earned run average during each of Fernandez's last five seasons in the role. She saw AUSL star Rachel Garcia garner a pair of Honda Cups along with three Honda Sport Awards for Softball and a pair of USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year accolades.

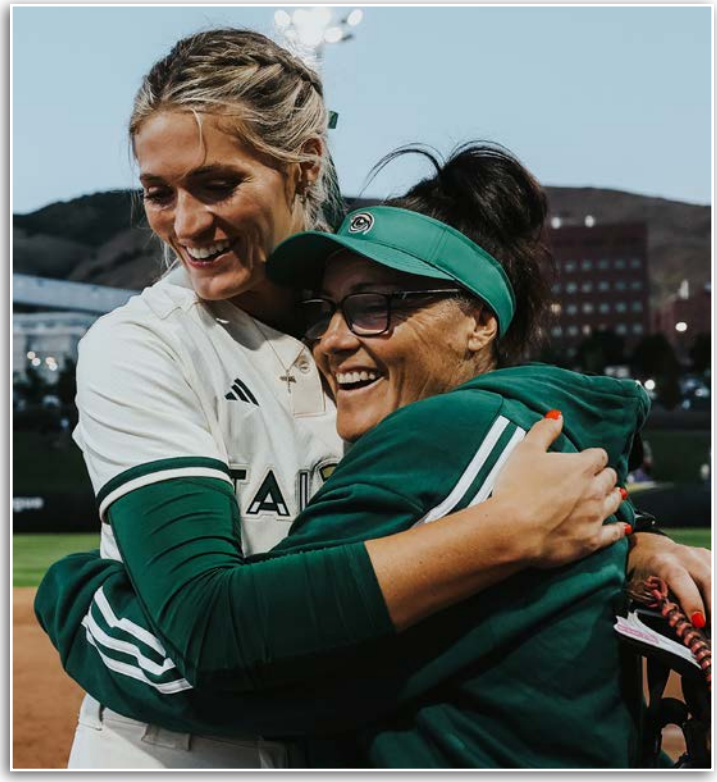

Fernandez also guided fellow AUSL hurler Megan Faraimo as the program's first back-to-back Pac-12 Conference Pitcher of the Year. Ten of Fernandez's former players are slated to compete in the AUSL this season, including three UCLA alums on the Talons' roster.

A three-time Olympic Gold medalist with Team USA, Fernandez was the winning pitcher in the 2000 and 2004 Gold medal contests while securing the save in the Gold Medal game against China in 1996. She achieved a 7-2 record in her Olympic career and allowed just 20 hits with six runs, including four earned runs, while posting 93 strikeouts in 74.2 innings. She also logged a .545 batting average during the 2004 Athens Olympics.

As a hitter, Fernandez also excelled at the plate during the Olympic games, posting a .302 batting average (23-for-76) with three home runs, 15 runs batted in and 10 runs scored. She was also an alternate for the 2008 Beijing Olympics.

In the 2000 Sydney Olympics, Fernandez fashioned an impressive 0.47 earned run average with 52 strikeouts, including an Olympic single-game record 25 strikeouts against Australia in round-robin play.

During her Olympic debut in 1996, Fernandez posted a 1-1 record and a 0.33 earned run average as Team USA won a Gold medal on home soil in Atlanta.

In addition to her Olympic accolades, Fernandez propelled Team USA to Gold medals at four straight World Championships between 1990 and 2002. She also claimed a trio of Gold medals at the 1991, 1999 and 2003 Pan American Games.

Lauded as one of the greatest players in the sport's history, Fernandez was a standout for UCLA from 1990-93 where she was a four-time Honda Sports Award winner as the nation's best player. She was also the first softball athlete to claim the Honda Broderick Cup in 1993 as the country's most outstanding collegiate female student-athlete.

A four-time First-Team All-America recipient, the pitcher/infielder led the Bruins to a 222-21 record and the 1990 and 1992 NCAA titles. The team also finished as the national runner-up in 1991 and 1993.

Fernandez, a two-way standout for the Bruins, completed her collegiate career with a 93-7 record in the circle with one save over 107 appearances. She authored a 0.22 career earned run average with 95 complete games and 784 strikeouts over 694.2 innings.

As a hitter, Fernandez fashioned a .381 career batting average (287-for-752) and 128 runs batted in across 240 career games. She scored 142 runs and drew 85 walks compared to just 16 strikeouts.

Fernandez led the nation as a senior with a .510 batting average and a 0.25 ERA on her way to the 1993 Honda-Broderick Cup. She was the recipient of the NCAA Top Six Award in 1994 as one of the top six senior student-athletes across all divisions.

In her junior season, Fernandez tallied a miniscule 0.14 ERA and posted one of just three undefeated pitching seasons in NCAA softball history after finishing with a 29-0 record.

Fernandez was inducted into the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame in 2003 before earning enshrinement as a 2013 inductee in the USA Softball Hall of Fame. In addition, Fernandez is a two-time selection to the U.S. Olympic Hall of Fame, earning the honor as an individual and as a member of the 2004 Olympic Softball Team.

CINDY BALL-MALONE

HEAD COACH

Cindy Ball-Malone's professional softball debut could not have gone any better after guiding Utah to its second consecutive Athletes Unlimited Softball League (AUSL) title along with a league-best 16 regular season victories.

Ball-Malone's squad was well represented in the league's postseason awards with infielder Bri Ellis claiming Comeback Player of the Year plaudits, while Montana Fouts' record-setting effort garnered the league's Pitcher of the Year award. Ellis and Fouts also joined outfielder Jadelyn Allchin, who was a finalist for the AUSL Rawlings Gold Glove Award, on the inaugural All-AUSL Team.

The Talons boasted the league's best pitching staff again in 2026, logging a collective 2.67 earned run average with a league-best 143 strikeouts. Led by Fouts and Georgina Corrick, the Utah pitching unit also limited opponents to a league-low .240 batting average and gave up just 17 home runs in 25 games.

Ball-Malone owns a 289-145-4 record in eight seasons as the head coach at the University of Central Florida while piloting the Knights to six NCAA Tournament berths, including the program's first regional title and Super Regionals berth in 2022.

Under Ball-Malone's direction, the Knights have won 30 or more games in seven of her eight seasons, including three consecutive 40-win campaigns from 2022-24.

The Knights reached the NCAA Tournament for the fifth time in the last six years this spring after compiling a 41-19-1 record and a fourth place finish in the Big 12 Conference. Six UCF players earned All-Big 12 commendations, including First-Team selections Sierra Humphreys and Isabella Vega, as the Knights advanced to the Los Angeles Super Regional against UCLA.

The 2025 season saw the Knights finish with a 35-24-1 record while securing a 12-12 league mark in their first year in the Big 12. Vega was a First-Team Freshman All-America selection by D1Softball, while Beth Damon was a Second-Team choice.

Ball-Malone guided the Knights to a 40-21 record and the American Athletic Conference Tournament title in 2023. UCF outscored opponents by an 18-5 count over three games in the conference postseason to secure the title in its final year in the AAC.

The 2022 season marked one of the best in UCF Softball history as the Knights finished with a 49-14 record while hosting an NCAA Regional for the first time. UCF also advanced to its first NCAA Super Regional after downing Michigan in the regional championship game.

Prior to joining UCF, Ball-Malone was the head coach at Boise State for four seasons where she led the program to its first postseason appearance at the 2017 National Invitational Softball Championship. She also brought Boise State to its first NCAA Tournament in 2018 after setting a program record with 40 victories, which included a win over New Mexico in the Mountain West Conference Championship.

Before making her head coaching debut at Boise State, Ball-Malone served as the recruiting coordinator and pitching coach at Washington for two years. The Huskies went 76-35 during her tenure with a pair of NCAA Super Regional entries.

In addition to her collegiate coaching experience, Ball-Malone was a member of the Team USA staff which won the Gold medal at the 2022 World Games. She also served as an assistant coach during the Canada Cup the same summer. She also sat at the helm of the softball teams at Modesto Junior College and Cosumnes River College in California.

Ball-Malone was a standout two-way player at Pacific and graduated as one of the most dominant pitchers and hitters in school and Big West Conference history. JO KOONS

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

Jo Koons' title with the Utah Talons may have changed to associate head coach in the 2026 Athletes Unlimited Softball League (AUSL) season, but the end result was the same with the team's second league title in as many years.

The Talons boasted a 16-9 regular season record to tie Chicago for the league's best mark before downing the Bandits in two games to secure the AUSL Championship. Utah produced the league's top pitching staff, while infielder Bri Ellis and outfielder Jadelyn Allchin piloted the Talons offensively en route to securing spots on the All-AUSL Team.

The Chico, California, native continued a busy year of coaching after finishing her second season as the head softball coach at Abilene Christian. The fifth head coach in Wildcats' history, she piloted ACU to its first berth in the Western Athletic Conference Tournament since 2022 after earning the No. 5 seed with an 11-13 record in league play last season.

Koons, who was named as the Wildcats' bench boss on June 27, 2024, mentored senior pitcher Lina Russo to Second-Team All-WAC status in 2025 after she led the league in innings pitched (178.1) with 105 strikeouts.

Koons also instructed Ari Maxwell to a Second-Team All-WAC selection this spring after the sophomore batted .326 with 12 home runs, 29 runs batted in and 32 runs scored.

Prior to joining Abilene Christian, Koons spent two seasons as an assistant coach at UT Arlington. She worked primarily with the Mavericks' defense and served as the program's recruiting coordinator.

In 2024, Koons coached UT Arlington to a 23-34 record, including an 11-14 mark in the Western Athletic Conference. The Mavericks, who placed sixth in the WAC standings, reached the league's semifinals after downing Tarleton and Seattle University in the postseason event.

Koons also mentored First-Team All-WAC honoree Camille Corona, who was also a member of the league's All-Defensive Team.

During Koons' inaugural season with UT Arlington, the Mavericks authored a 22-30 record and finished seventh in the WAC regular season standings with a 11-13 mark. Marley Neises garnered Second-Team All-WAC status after leading the Mavericks with a .382 batting average and seven home runs.

Koons worked as an assistant coach at Longwood University during the 2022 campaign, leading the Lancers to a berth in the Big South Conference championship game. Anchored by Big South Freshman of the Year Jaden Pone, Longwood posted a 34-24 overall record with a 21-6 league mark in Koons' lone season with the Lancers.

Koons also spent two seasons on the coaching staff at Oregon, overseeing one of the top defensive units in the nation. The Ducks claimed 40 wins during the 2021 campaign and ranked 15th nationally with a .977 fielding percentage.

Koons' coaching résumé also includes stops at Utah State, Colorado Christian and Stanford. She served as the head coach at Lassen College in California during the 2018 season.

A four-year letter winner at shortstop for Utah State from 2012-15, Koons compiled a .271 career batting average while appearing in 203 games. She closed her career with 156 hits, including 20 doubles and 10 triples, while scoring 92 runs.

Koons graduated from Utah State in 2015 with a bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies before earning her master's degree in organizational leadership from Colorado Christian in 2018.

WILL OLDHAM

ASSISTANT COACH

Winning championships is nothing new for Will Oldham, who secured his second AUSL title in as many seasons on the Utah Talons' coaching staff during the 2026 campaign.

The Talons have enjoyed success during Oldham's time on the staff with a league-best 34 victories while boasting the AUSL's top pitching staff. Utah has featured the league's Pitcher of the Year during each of the last two seasons after Montana Fouts claimed the honor this summer, while infielder Bri Ellis was the AUSL Comeback Player of the Year.

Oldham completed his fourth season as a member of the coaching staff at UCLA this spring after serving as the director of player development and data analytics. He opened his time at UCLA in 2023 as a volunteer assistant coach before moving into his current role in 2024.

During Oldham's tenure at UCLA, the Bruins have earned two NFCA West Region Coaching Staff of the Year certificates while earning a pair of NCAA Women's College World Series berths. UCLA has also won two Pac-12 Conference regular season titles along with the league's tournament crown in 2024.

The 2026 season featured a historic performance from AUSL College Draft pick Megan Grant, who broke the NCAA Division I single-season home run record that had been in place for 31 years.

Under Oldham's tutelage, the Bruins boasted one of the most high-powered offenses in the nation in 2025 by ranking among the national leaders in runs scored (485), home runs (101) and slugging percentage (.591).

In 2024, the Bruins overcame a 3-4 start to post a 43-12 record and earn an entry into the NCAA Women's College World Series. The turnaround vaulted Oldham and the Bruins' coaching staff into being honored as the NFCA West Region Coaching Staff of the Year.

Oldham worked closely with infielder Maya Brady and catcher Sharlize Palacios, helping the duo garner NFCA All-America status. Brady earned her second straight Pac-12 Player of the Year citation after leading the Bruins with a .418 batting average and 68 runs batted in, while Palacios belted five of her 20 home runs during the NCAA Tournament.

The Bruins also won the Pac-12 regular season and tournament titles as Palacios was named the tournament's Most Outstanding Player. They fashioned a perfect 5-0 record in NCAA Regional and Super Regional action to secure the program's eighth WCWS berth in the last nine tournaments.

In Oldham's first year at UCLA, the Bruins authored a 52-7 record and secured the Pac-12 regular season title with three players earning NFCA All-America notice. Brady was a Top-3 finalist for the USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year award after setting career highs for batting average (.448), home runs (18) and slugging percentage (.866).

Grant and Jordan Woolery, meanwhile, were Top 10 finalists for the NFCA Freshman of the Year award after combining to drive in 104 runs, the most by a rookie duo in program history.

Oldham, who also holds seven years of high school softball coaching experience in the Palm Springs area, was born in Indio, California.

BRANDON BANTZ

ASSISTANT COACH

Brandon Bantz couldn't have written a better script for his first season with the Utah Talons, helping the squad produce its second straight Athletes Unlimited Softball League (AUSL) title following a league-best 16-9 regular season record.

Bantz worked with the Talons' catchers, who helped the squad boast the top pitching unit in the league for the second consecutive season.

In addition to AUSL, Bantz is the founder and CEO of Catchers Central and works as an instructor for baseball and softball players, ranging from collegiate to professional athletes, including former Athletes Unlimited standout Amanda Chidester. The organization has trained dozens of professional athletes in Major League Baseball and professional softball, including several Olympians.

Selected by the Seattle Mariners in the 30th round of the 2009 MLB Draft, Bantz made his Major League debut on June 8, 2013, after spending time in the minor leagues. He made one appearance in a start behind the plate before later signing with the Washington Nationals and Miami Marlins organizations.

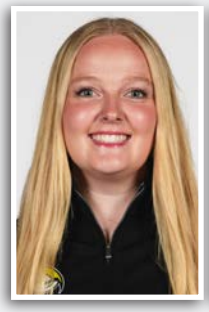

In seven Minor League Baseball seasons, Bantz accrued a .234 average with 15 home runs, 120 runs batted in and 122 runs scored over 352 games.

Bantz was a four-year member of the Dallas Baptist baseball team from 2006-09 where he hit .302 with 21 home runs, 101 runs batted in and 123 runs scored over 164 games. He guided the Patriots to 138 victories during his career, including a 37-19 record with an NCAA Regional appearance in 2008.

A 2009 Dallas Baptist graduate with a degree in exercise science, Bantz was inducted into the DBU Circle of Honor at the annual baseball team banquet in 2014. He was also inducted into the Mansfield Independent School District Hall of Fame following a successful high school playing career.

CAT OSTERMAN

GENERAL MANAGER

A name synonymous with softball in the United States, Cat Osterman returned for her second year as the Texas Volts' general manager during the 2026 AUSL season.

Renowned as one of the top pitchers in the sport's history, Osterman competed in three Olympic Games while serving as a member of the United States National Team from 2001-10 and 2019-21. She guided Team USA to the Gold medal in the 2004 Athens Olympics with two victories and a save while serving as the youngest player on the roster.

Team USA also claimed a Silver medal in the 2008 Beijing Olympics and the 2020 Tokyo Olympics with Osterman anchoring the pitching staff. Over her 20 seasons playing at softball's highest level, Osterman fashioned an impressive 74-5 record in the circle with a 0.44 earned run average and 1,030 strikeouts over 519.0 innings.

The only three-time winner of the USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Award, Osterman had a historic playing career at Texas from 2002-06. She led the Longhorns to three Women's College World Series appearances in 2003, 2005 and 2006 and earned a pair of WCWS All-Tournament Team certificates. The four-time NFCA All-America performer claimed the sport's highest honor as the 2005 and 2006 Honda Award winner for softball and was honored as the 2005 and 2006 ESPY Award winner as the Top Collegiate Female Athlete.

Osterman still holds several Texas career pitching records, including victories (136), earned run average (0.51), shutouts (85), no-hitters (20), perfect games (7), innings pitched (1,105.2), appearances (180) and strikeouts (2,265). She also holds the distinction of being the only student-athlete in softball history to lead the nation in earned run average multiple times, doing so three times.

With a 14.34 strikeout-per-seven-inning average, Osterman still holds the NCAA top mark after nearly 20 years. She held opposing hitters to just a .096 clip in her college career.

A four-time Big 12 Conference Pitcher of the Year selection, Osterman also stands as the league's all-time leader in career wins, ERA, strikeouts, no-hitters, perfect games and shutouts. She also claimed the 2006 NCAA Today's Top VIII Award, which was awarded to the top eight senior student-athletes in the country. She is one of just five pitchers in NCAA Division I history with least 100 career victories, 1,000 career strikeouts and a career ERA under 1.00.

In addition to her success in the circle, Osterman also excelled academically at Texas and garnered Third-Team CoSIDA Academic All-America® honors as a sophomore in addition to three Academic All-Big 12 Conference Team citations. She was enshrined into the College Sports Communicators Academic All-America® Hall of Fame in June 2025.

After graduating from Texas, Osterman was the No. 1 overall pick in the 2006 National Pro Fastpitch (NPF) league draft by the Connecticut Brakettes, but never played with the team. She spent two seasons with the Rockford Thunder, earning MVP honors at the NPF Championship Series after leading Rockford to the league title over the USSSA Pride.

Osterman went on to lead the USSSA Pride to three NPF championships over six seasons. She earned All-NPF status six times, including a pair of Pitcher of the Year certificates, and finished as the league's all-time leader with a 0.91 career earned run average. In addition, Osterman ranks second in league history with 1,260 strikeouts.

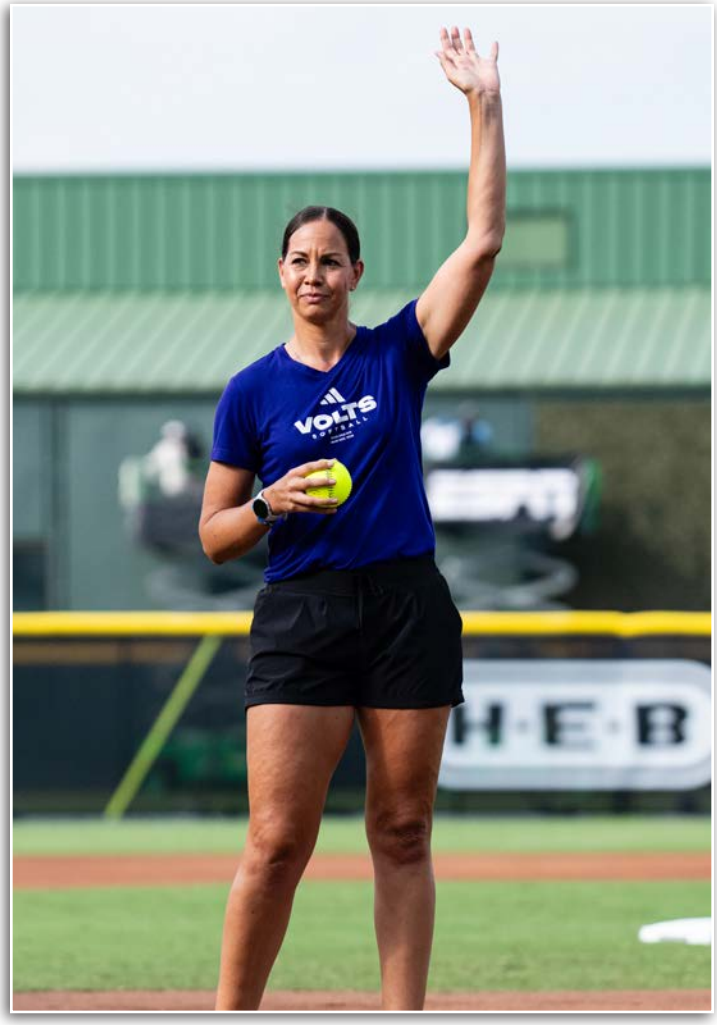

In addition to her playing career, Osterman spent six years as an assistant coach at Texas State, helping the Bobcats rise to the top of the Sun Belt Conference. Texas State, which reached the NCAA Tournament three times during Osterman's tenure, closed the 2018 season with a 43-16 record and the regular season and tournament titles, marking the program's first championships since joining the league.

With Osterman in the dugout, the Bobcats' pitching staff posted a sub-2.00 earned run average three times over six seasons.

Before joining the Texas State staff, Osterman spent three seasons as an assistant coach at St. Edwards University. The Hilltoppers compiled a 98-69 record and an appearance in the NCAA DIvision II Super Regionals. St. Edwards won the Heartland Conference Tournament in 2012, while climbing to a runner-up finish in the league postseason in 2013 and 2014.

Osterman began her coaching career at DePaul from 2008-10, helping the Blue Demons earn three Big East Championships and a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances.

No stranger to Athletes Unlimited Pro Softball, Osterman earned the inaugural 2020 AU Pro Softball Championship Season title with a league-record 2,408 leaderboard points. She garnered 14 wins in 23 career appearances and still holds league standards for earned run average (1.64) and innings (124.0), while her 145 strikeouts are second on the all-time chart.

Osterman was 16-8 as a captain over two seasons, including a league-record 10 wins during the inaugural campaign.

Osterman was enshrined in the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in 2013 before securing a spot in the World of Little League® Hall of Excellence. She was the fourth female and first softball inductee to join the Hall of Excellence.

Osterman earned a bachelor's degree in psychology from Texas in 2007 before securing a master's degree in educational and counseling psychology with a concentration in positive coaching from Missouri in 2015.

Osterman, who is married to Joey Ashley, has a daughter named Jaycee and a step-daughter named Bracken.

Pitcher Randi Rupp was honored as the Sun Belt Pitcher of the Year along with claiming First-Team NFCA All-Central Region and All-Sun Belt plaudits.

In 2016, Texas State earned an at-large berth in the NCAA Tournament after advancing to the Sun Belt Tournament championship game in just its third season in the league. During the Bobcats' Sun Belt debut in 2014, a pair of student-athletes earned NFCA All-Region status.

Woodard guided Texas State to the Southland Conference regular season and tournament titles in its final year in the league in 2012. The Bobcats, who had five players earn All-Southland honors, advanced to the NCAA College Station Regional and Woodard earned her fourth SLC Coach of the Year plaque.

Woodard left the Southland Conference as the league's winningest coach with a 249-75-1 record against league foes in 12 seasons.

The 2008 Southland Conference Coach of the Year, Woodard saw the Bobcats finish with a 35-18 record, including a 25-5 mark in league play, to finish first in the standings. Eight Texas State players earned All-Southland honors, including Pitcher of the Year Ragan Blake and Hitter of the Year McKenzie Baack.

Woodard made her second trip to the NCAA Tournament in 2003 after piloting the Bobcats to a 46-18-1 record, including a 21-5-1 mark in league play. The Bobcats finished in second place in the Southland Conference and reached the NCAA Austin Regional Final after defeating Arizona State, Northwestern and Hawai'i.

In Woodard's inaugural season in San Marcos, the Bobcats set a school record with 54 wins en route to securing the Southland Conference regular season and tournament titles. Texas State advanced to the NCAA Regional Final before falling to eventual champion Arizona.

Before joining Texas State, Woodard spent four years as an assistant coach at Oregon. The Ducks earned a national ranking in three of Woodard's four seasons while reaching the NCAA Tournament three times.

Woodard began her coaching career by working with high school programs with stops at Midland High School and Brazosport High School. Midland claimed the first district title in school history under Woodard's guidance.

The infielder piloted the Bulldogs 40 or more wins in each of her four seasons, including a 51-14 record as a junior, while leading Georgia to the NCAA Women's College World Series in 2010 and 2011.

The three-time First-Team All-SEC performer also earned a spot on the league's All-Defensive Team at third base during her senior season. In addition, she appeared on USA Softball's National Collegiate Player of the Year Top 25 list in 2011.

Goler compiled a .455 batting average during her sophomore season at Georgia, a mark that still tops the Bulldogs' all-time single-season chart. She closed her career as the program's all-time leader with 58 career home runs, becoming the first player in school history to surpass 50 career homers.

Goler, who ranks among the Bulldogs' all-time leaders with 52 career doubles, still stands as the program's career leader with 184 career walks. She also owns the top single-season mark after drawing 64 free passes during her senior season.
